Dear Friend,

The coming season of High Holy Days brings with it memories of families and friends praying together, past joys and the sadness of recalling those loved ones who are no longer with use. This year, as always, you have an opportunity to memorialize your loved ones and honor their memory by inscribing their names in Congregation Beth El-Keser Israel's Yizkor Memorial Book.

We are once again preparing the annual Yizkor Memorial Book which will be used each time in the coming year that the Yizkor service is recited (Yom Kippur, Shmini Atzeret, Pesach, Shavu'ot). To include the names of those you would like remembered at this special time, please return the enclosed form listing these names EXACTLY as you wish to have them inscribed.

This is also a time to rejoice in the living and our hopes for the future, and so, we include the Sefer HaChaim listing in this booklet. It is another opportunity to honor the connection between our families and our synagogue. Sefer HaChaim translates as "book of life." Please consider listing your family and others for whom you wish a long and healthy life on our Sefer HaChaim! Please note that this is not the BEKI Sisterhood Book of Life (which is displayed in the lobby of the synagogue).

As you are no doubt well aware, the Yizkor Memorial Book is also part of our yearly fundraising efforts. We hope that our efforts to enhance the Yizkor service with this special booklet provide some added value for your generous donations in support of our synagogue. In addition to information on the Yizkor prayer itself, also included are suggestions for meditations to be said when visiting a grave site or when lighting memorial candles, and other helpful information. At the conclusion of the Yom Kippur service, you may take a copy home with you for use on these occasions.

Please send full payment with your listing in the enclosed envelope.

Deadline is September 12, 2011.
