

Join us
for this exciting
series of short,
but engaging discussions and workshops as we immerse ourselves and our community
in this awesome season.

SHABBAT AT BEKI

You are enthusiastically invited to join us for Shabbat morning services each week, which begin at 9:15am. Services are overseen by Rabbi Jon-Jay Tilsen, who also presents a “Dvar Torah” and lively discussion afterward, and our Shabbat prayers are lay led by skilled members of our diverse community.

A wonderful array of programs is available each Shabbat for our children. Children’s programming begins at 10:45am:

Children’s Havura (0-4)
K-2 Kehila (Kindergarten – 2nd gr)
Jr. Congregation (3rd – 6th)
Cosmic Conversations (7th up)

An adult Shabbat Shalom Learners Minyan begins at 10:45am on alternate weeks.

Shabbat Kiddush Lunch, which immediately follows our morning services, is prepared by members of the BEKI Kiddush Committee and is open to all who attend our services.

FOR MORE INFORMATION about these and all of our programs, please contact the office or check out our website at www.beki.org.

HINENI: Here I Am

On Rosh HaShana we gather to be held accountable for our lives, to start again, to stand up for our beliefs, to answer the call of conscience. Together we will explore the scope of “Hineni” from “I am here” to “Here I stand”; from Abraham’s response to God’s call to sacrifice his beloved son to the cantor’s moving and humble supplication before God and the community.

Our Shabbat Shmoozes will immediately follow our regular Shabbat Morning Services and lovely Kiddush Luncheon

SHOFAR – AND YET SO NEAR: The Mystery of the Shofar

Come learn about why we sound the shofar, it’s history, which animal horns may be used, the scriptural sources for our practice of sounding the shofar, the specifics of the notes we blow and technical aspects of blowing the shofar (and brass instruments in general)...and what does it mean for us? Bring your own shofar, or try one of BEKI’s.

*CHICKEN OF THE SEA:
The Repentance of Jonah – What Repentance?*

Explore the book of Jonah, which we read as the Haftora on Yom Kippur afternoon. This compelling story of Jonah has captivated the imaginations of children and adults through the ages. What new questions will it present for us as we head into Yom Kippur this year.
