Selling of Hametz

During the eight days of Pesah (Passover), it is forbidden for Jews to eat or own edible hametz. Hametz is any product containing wheat, barley, oats, spelt or rye that has not been especially prepared kosher for Pesah. Ideally, one physically disposes of all hametz by the morning before Pesah. In order to be sure that this has taken place, or to avoid the loss of expensive hametz such as liquor, you can sell your hametz for the period of Pesah. If you would like to authorize Rabbi Tilsen to sell your hametz to someone who is allowed to own it, please sign and return the form available at www.beki.org/forms.html and in the literature rack. The form is a power of attorney allowing Rabbi Tilsen to sell your hametz for you.

Hagadot and Seder Plates at Giftshop

Hagadot (do-it-yourself guide and service books) for Pesah, including the Rabbinical Assembly’s Passover Hag-gadah: The Feast of Freedom, are available at the Sisterhood Giftshop and wherever fine Judaica is sold. The Giftshop also offers a significant collection of decorative seder plates and other Pesah supplies (such as toy frogs).

KINAHARA: Kosher for Pesah

Answers to frequently asked questions can be found at the website of the Kashrut Initiative of the New Haven Area Rabbinical Assembly, www.kinahara.org. The Rabbinical Assembly’s Pesah Guide is available at http://rabbinicalassembly.org/pesah-guide.

Bediqat Hametz & Biur Hametz

On the night of Sunday April 13, it is customary to perform Bediqat Hametz, the final check for leaven before Passover.

Criminal Justice Reform: April 12 Shabbat Schmooze with John Santa

Shabbat afternoon April 12

After a 40-year career in marketing, finance and finally as CEO at Santa Energy, John Santa now serves as an independent director for four private corporations. His record as a community activist as well as his ongoing commitment to social justice and community service is substantial.

Having served on many community boards in the past such as the Inner City Foundation for Charity and Education and the Family Firm Institute, he is currently an active member of the Sentencing Commission of the State of Connecticut, the board of the Fairfield Museum and History Center and the Institute for Catholic Studies at Fairfield University. He has headed the inaugural capital campaigns at Lauralton Hall in Milford and St. Joseph’s Manor in Trumbull. John is a founder of the National Oilheat Research Alliance for which he was instrumental in putting a bill through Congress for its establishment. He is also the grateful recipient of a Paul Harris Fellowship from the Rotary Club of Fairfield Connecticut as well as the Volunteer of the Year Award from the Department of Correction of the State of Connecticut. In 2012, John received the Graymoor Award from the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement for his work on behalf of current and formerly incarcerated men and women.

In 2002, John and his colleagues began Malta Prison Volunteers of Connecticut, now known as Malta Criminal Justice Initiative, whose charge is to inform and educate people in the Business, Faith and Academic communities about the opportunities available in Criminal Justice Reform. His programs were embraced as the first and only National Work of the American Association of the Order of Malta. The Order now conducts Prison Ministry activities from coast to coast. The Order of Malta is a 900-year-old worldwide organization of Catholic lay people who do work on behalf of the sick and the poor.

John and his wife, Irene, live in Southport. They are the proud parents of their daughter, Kerstin of Bridgeport and their son, Devin, who lives in Fairfield with his lovely wife Beth and their precious daughters, Alyssa Lyn and Heidi Ann.
Pesah

Hol HaMoed it is common to wear tefillin in the morning until after the amida and to remove them before Hallel. (Others omit tefillin altogether in this period.) During Hol HaMoed, as in the entire month of Nisan, the Tahanun (supplication) is omitted in the daily services. Hallel and musaf are recited daily, and the passage Ya’ale veYavo is included in the amida and in Birkat haMazon (grace after meals).

The prohibition against possessing and eating hametz remains in force. One should seek to make the period celebratory. In the idyllic future, the period should be a general public holiday when all can skip work without concern for income or security.

Pesah Candle Lighting
The first night of Passover is Monday April 14; candle lighting in New Haven is at 7:12. For the second night, candle lighting should be after 8:12 (an hour later). Because it is not permitted to strike matches on the Festival days, our practice is to light a flame before the festival begins that will burn at least 26 hours, and to use that flame to light the Pesah candles the second night.

Candle lighting for the seventh day, Sunday night April 20, is at 7:19 or earlier, and on Monday night April 21 at 8:20 or later.

Shir HaShirim – Song of Songs
The Biblical love poetry of Shir HaShirim - Song of Songs will be read on the morning of Shabbat Pesah April 19 after the haftara reading. Tradition ascribes the work to King Solomon himself, writing 2,900 years ago. Celebrate the spring holiday of Pesah with this beautiful and moving reading.

Sefira – Counting the Omer
At the second Seder (Tuesday night April 15), we begin daily sefirat ha-omer (counting of the omer), a counting of days to Shavuot, the next major festival. The counting, preferably done each night for 49 nights, is an expression of eager anticipation, commemorating the period of expectation and preparation we experienced in the Exodus from Egypt until the revelation at Sinai.

The simple home ceremony is printed in most siddurim (prayer books), including Sim Shalom, immediately after the weekday evening service. While it is a mitzva prescribed for adults, sefirat ha-omer can also be a fun, artistic and joyous ritual for families with children.

In the days before printed calendars, calendar watches and daily newspapers, the sefira served to keep the liturgical calendar of the Jewish People synchronized, no simple accomplishment, given the dispersion and isolation of much of the community. The term omer refers to the measure (one handful) of grain that was used to create a physical relic of the counting. With a physical reminder, even illiterate people could do a recount in case they forgot the day’s number.

Families with young children may use this opportunity to help their children understand and experience anticipation, planning, counting and hope.

Teach us to number our days, that we may attain a heart of wisdom.
– Psalm 90:12

Yizkor Memorial Service
The Yizkor Memorial Service will be held during the 9:15 Festival morning service on Tuesday April 22. The Festival service includes a Shaharit morning service, Hallel (Psalms of praise), a Torah reading and Haftara, and the Musaf additional service, and concludes by 12:10 p.m. The Yizkor memorial service is one of four such services during the year that help us recognize our feelings of loss, which are often especially intense during the Pesah season, and to honor the memories of our loved ones.

Yom HaShoah – Holocaust Memorial Day
Yom HaShoah, a memorial day for the holocaust, the destruction of Jewish civilization in Europe, will be observed on Sunday night April 27 and Monday April 28 (deferred so that it does not immediately follow Shabbat).

Sisterhood is selling yellow Holocaust memorial candles this year. Candles may be purchased from the Sisterhood Giftshop on Sundays 11 to noon when Religious School is in session, or call Mimi Glenn (203) 397-3851 any other time.

Yom HaZikaron, Yom HaAtzmaut
Yom HaZikaron, Israeli Memorial Day, is observed Sunday May 4 and Monday May 5; Yom HaAtzmaut, Israel Independence Day, is observed on Monday night May 5 and Tuesday May 6. These back-to-back holidays recognize the combination of suffering and joy, of sacrifice and achievement that often necessarily come together in our lives. All of these days are marked liturgically in public worship at BEKI.

Darshanim

Darshan – noun, plural dar·sha·nim. Judaism. a preacher or teacher of Aggada or Halakha in a synagogue.

Rabbi Tilsen has invited the following speakers to serve as guest Darshanim in the coming weeks.

Avital Sutin, bat mitzva, will serve as darshanit on Shabbat Parashat Metsora April 5.

Elijah Labowe-Stoll, bar mitzva, will serve as darshan on Shabbat Parashat BeHar May 10.

Randy Kohn, bar mitzva, will serve as darshan on Shabbat Parashat BeHuqotai May 17.

Shabbat Shalom Torah Study

The Shabbat Shalom Torah Study meets every other Saturday morning at 10:45 in the office and is an ideal setting for veteran and novice shul-goers alike to explore the scriptural readings and liturgy of the day in a supportive setting. Expertly led by Steven Fraade, with Rabbi Alan Lovins, Rabbi Murray Levine, Nadav Sela, David Kuperstock, Isaiah Cooper, Rabbi Eric Silver and others, the Shabbat Shalom Torah Study is a nurturing exploration of practice and theory presented in a participatory, non-threatening and multi-generational setting. Many members who take advantage of this unique offering feel a deeper sense of awe born of increased understanding and appreciation of the Torah reading, Haftara (Prophetic reading) and liturgy.

The program often focuses on the scriptural readings, but also addresses the prayer liturgy and other topics related to the liturgical calendar, scriptural readings or current issues of concern.

Everyone is welcome to participate regardless of religious status or background. It is suitable for mature, or at least well-behaved, youth along with adults.

Sundays

Tefillin Workshop

Guided help in wrapping and wearing tefillin (phylacteries – prayer amulets) on Sunday morning April 6 from 9 to 10. For Jewish adults and immediate pre-benei mitzva students. Individual help in donning tefillin, with some explanation of the practice during the morning. A specialist for left-handed persons will be present on each date along with helpers for right-handed people. Bring your own tefillin or borrow ours. With Steven Fraade, Sarah Magidson, Rabbi Tilsen and others.

Mondays

Rashi Study Group: Shemuel

Each Monday morning from 7:45 to 8:30 adults meet in the Library Chapel to read Rashi’s commentary on the TaNaKh (Hebrew Bible). The Rashi Study Group (RSG) has begun the Book of Shemuel (Samuel). Characters in the narrative include the Prophet Samuel, King Saul and King David, Mikhal, Batsheva, and more. It is possible to join the study group for a single meeting or to begin at any time. Knowledge of Hebrew is not necessary. Rashi purported to explain the peshat of the text, i.e., the meaning in its historical, literary and linguistic context. Visitors and new participants are welcome. Hebrew and English texts are available. The RSG meets immediately following the 7 a.m. shaharit service. The RSG will be pre-empted on Monday April 14 by the Siyyum Bekhorot. With Jon-Jay Tilsen.

Wednesdays

Hebrew Word of the Week

The Wednesday morning service (shaharit) features a 180-second “Hebrew word of the Week” to promote the learning of Hebrew. The Hebrew language is highly structured. Most words are based on three-letter roots, and are made with a limited set of verb or noun forms. By learning a few dozen roots and a small set of word-forms, it is possible to roughly translate Hebrew words isolated from any context, something less often possible in English. The Word of the Week often relates to the weekly scriptural readings, enhancing personal study and public Torah discussion.

Rabbis’ Study Group

Wednesdays with Murray is a weekly study group exclusively for rabbis, facilitated by Rabbi Murray Levine. The Wednesday study group affords local rabbis an opportunity to pursue their own talmud torah (Torah study) in a “safe” setting and with opportunities to learn from each others’ experience and insight. The study group meets Wednesday mornings in the Rosenkrantz Family Library. For more information, call Rabbi Murray Levine at (203) 397-2513.

Thursdays

Mini Morning Learning Service

The Thursday morning services are supplemented with commentary and teaching relating to the history, themes, choreography and language of the daily morning service. Shaharit service is from 8:15 to 9:15 on Thursdays; on other weekdays, the service begins at 7 o’clock.

Sanhedrin Talmud Study Group

The Sanhedrin Talmud Study Group meets on Thursdays during the lunch hour (noon to 1). The Group has met weekly since 1999. For some participants, this is their first direct experience with Talmud text; for others, it is a continuation of a long journey. The Group focuses on the issues raised in the Talmud, with less attention to the technical aspects of the text. Knowledge of Hebrew or Aramaic is helpful but not required.

The Sanhedrin Study Group will not meet on April 10 and April 17.

Every Day

Divrei Torah on the Web

A collection of Divrei Torah (Torah commentaries) and essays by members and Rabbi Tilsen is posted on BEKI’s website under “Adult Studies” and “Meet Rabbi Tilsen.”

The 20s-30s Ḥavura (Friendship Circle)

Next event: 20s30s Havura Shabbat Dinner, April 25 at Will & Mike’s Residence.

The 20s-30s Ḥavura is a group of singles and couples in their 20s and 30s who gather throughout the year to share a Shabbat Dinner or celebrate a holiday.

The Ḥavura serves as a network of friends (both BEKI members and non-members) to support each other as they face life’s challenges.

The atmosphere of the Ḥavura is intimate, warm and informal, with 10 to 20 people participating in a typical monthly event. It is a great place to meet people, but it is not a “singles’ scene” like one might encounter at a large Jewish singles’ dance. The Ḥavura is operated largely through the volunteer effort of those interested, and thus reflects the interests and commitments of its participants.

Youth

From Youth Coordinator

2014 has been action packed and full of fun for the youth of BEKI. USY took part in many religious education activities, such as a chocolate Tu BeShevat Seder, halla baking, and Mishloah Manot packaging for Purim, as well as tiqun olam projects, such as delivering the hand-made Mishloah Manot packages to the seniors of Coachman Square. Our Kadimaniks have also been having a great time -- whether bowling, playing laser tag, baking brownies, playing dodgeball, or baking hamantashen for Purim. Both groups had a great time on their regional overnights – our USYers still cannot stop talking about the SATO dance sleepover and the Kadimaniks had an awesome time at Prime Climb on their overnight.

Want to see pictures and event updates? Check out our blog at bekibjkadimausy.blogspot.com and our Facebook page: BEKI-BJ USY. Here you can also find the Kadima and USY membership forms if you’d like to become a member of our family.

And now… for our exciting April activities!

For Kadima

April 6 at 1 p.m.: Painting ceramic Seder Plates at The Clay Date; $30/person; signup at bekibkadima@gmail.com before April 2.
April 19 at 8:45 p.m.: Matzoh-pizza movie night at TBD
April 26 at 4 p.m.: Shabbat game day at BEKI

For USY

April 4-6: Hanefesh Spring Convention at Camp Jori in Wakefield, R.I.
April 7 at 7 p.m.: Lounge night at BEKI.
April 27 at 2 p.m.: Limousine Scavenger Hunt; April 27 1-4 p.m., RSVP bekibjusy@gmail.com by April 1. Members only; $15 off membership fee to become a new member before April 1.

Summer

Looking for a meaningful way to spend your summer? It’s not too early to check out the USY and Kadima summer programs at http://www.usy.org/escape/.

As always, please do not hesitate to reach out to me, Emily Zaghi, Youth Group Coordinator of BEKI-BJ Kadima and USY. I’d love to get to know the parents of our youth, and to hear questions, comments, concerns, and of course new ideas. I can be reached at bekibkadima@gmail.com or bekibjusy@gmail.com or at my cellphone, (516) 316-6154.

All the best, Emily Zaghi

This year’s honorees for the Book of Life are Carole and Paul Bass.

Please honor them with one or more inscriptions in the Book of Life in the synagogue lobby. You may also purchase inscriptions in honor or in memory of family and friends.

The cost is $18 per inscription. Please mail the inscriptions by May 15 to Mikki Ratner, 135 Seneca Road, New Haven CT. 06515.

Holocaust Memorial Keep the Flame Alive

Yom Hashoah: Light A Yellow Candle To Remember Those Who Perished. The day will be observed Sunday evening April 27 (27 Nisan). Please purchase a yellow memorial candle at $6 per candle to remember the Six Million who perished.

The yellow candles recall the badges Jews were forced to wear in Nazi-occupied Europe, but their flame inspires hope that we can yet make our world a tolerant place to live.

Women’s League for Conservative Judaism (Sisterhood’s) goal is to sell one million candles this year. The candles may be purchased in the Sisterhood Gift Shop at BEKI any time.

Please join us for a Shabbat Schmooze after kiddush, Saturday April 26 (26 Nisan) with guest speaker Dr. Kemp-ton who will discuss “Redefining Resistance During The Shoah.”

Shop at BEKI Sisterhood Gift Shop for your Passover needs and get a free fabulous Sisterhood cookbook.

A Different Perspective on the Four Sons

You invited family, friends and the stranger among us to join you for the Seder this year.

You shopped, cleaning the home, searched for hamets, cooked the Seder meal, set the table with your best Passover dishes, cutlery and glasses, and now you are finally sitting and retelling the story of the exodus from Egypt.

We were slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt and the Lord our God took us from there with a strong hand and with an outstretched arm. At one point in the haggada we are introduced to the Four Sons. One can look at the four sons as four generations of Jewish America today.

First generation of eastern European Jewry who immigrated to America at the turn of the century are presented as the Wise Son. This is a Jew who grew up with a strong connection to the Jewish way of life. He works from Monday to Friday, observes Shabbat and gets fired for not coming to work. He knows why Judaism is important. His commitment is unshakable.

The Second generation is represented by the Wicked Son. This is the rebel who wants to succeed in his new life and take on Western values. He was raised in a home full of Jewish values and integrated Jewish life, yet he rejects this in favor of integrating into Western society and becoming accepted as the new American.

The third generation is represented by the Simple Son. This child spent Seder night with his grandparents, saw his grandmother light the Sabbath and holiday candles. He has a bit of knowledge from Hebrew school, but doesn’t know how the meaning behind any symbols and is not very motivated to go beyond what he sees.

The fourth generation is represented by the “One who doesn’t know how to ask.” He does not have memories of his grandparents. He celebrates the American holidays not knowing that he is a Jew and has no connection to Judaism. He sits at the Seder night and doesn’t know how to ask because it is all too foreign to him.

There is a fifth son today. He is often traveling all over the world on the Seder night not aware that Passover exists. We need to get him curious, interested and connected to the Jewish people and his heritage by being at a Seder and encourage him to ask questions that interest him and thus you can open the door to him.

Ask your kids, if they wanted to pass on a family tradition through the generations, how would they ensure that it gets passed on?

— Mimi Glenn, Sisterhood

Grounds Cleanup

Sunday April 6, 9:45 to 11:30 a.m. (after morning services), bring gloves, rakes, electric hedge clippers, extension cords, short step ladders, brooms or blowers. Socialize, exercise, fraternize, prepare grounds for Pesah; volunteers needed; contact David Wright rmdavidlouis@yahoo.com 203-624-2490.

Tablecloths

Tablecloths used for Shabbat se`udot are washed by volunteers. The Doodle Calendar and instruction are at http://doodle.com/p5b3d3sfxf2y8c22?#. Info: Trish trishsloving@gmail.com (203) 389-2055 or (203) 641-0925.

When There's a Will . . .

On Shabbat April 12, the Legacy LeHayim committee will sponsor the Qiddush in honor of those people who have provided for BEKI in their estates. Please join us in thanking them for their commitment to tzedaqa and to BEKI. Please consider becoming a Legacy LeHayim member. The Legacy LeHayim Committee Members will be happy to talk with you.
