Selling of Hametz

During the eight days of Pesah (Passover), it is forbidden for Jews to eat or own edible hametz. Hametz is any product containing wheat, barley, oats, spelt or rye that has not been especially prepared kosher for Pesah. Ideally, one physically disposes of all hametz by the morning before Pesah. In order to be sure that this has taken place, or to avoid the loss of expensive hametz such as liquor, you can sell your hametz for the period of Pesah. If you would like to authorize Rabbi Tilsen to sell your hametz to someone who is allowed to own it, please sign and return the form available at www.beki.org/forms.html and in the literature rack. The form is a power of attorney allowing Rabbi Tilsen to sell your hametz for you.

Kulanu – Special Needs Seder

The Sisterhood of Congregation Beth El-Keser Israel, and BEKI’s Kulanu Havura outreach program, in conjunction with Jewish Family Service and Abel Catering, have hosted the annual Adult Special Needs Model Seder at BEKI during the weeks before Pesah. Each year the Sisterhood has hosted an enthusiastic group of Jewish adults from the New Haven area with a variety of special needs. Last year, about 50 people participated.

This year, with the support of Abel Catering and the BEKI Sisterhood, the Special Need Seder is being held concurrently with the Masorti Community Second Seder, this year hosted by Temple Beth Sholom in Hamden. Thanks to the Sisterhood and to Kulanu Coordinator Ina Silverman for assisting TBS in making arrangements to host our Kulanu and Saul’s Circle participants.

For many, this is their only taste of Passover and one that they relish and look forward to each year. The Torah teaches about four types of children, and the Haggada reminds us that we must tell the story of the Exodus to each son and daughter of Israel in the way that is most meaningful to him or her. Through the efforts of Sisterhood, our outreach coordinator, the generosity of ACI Catering and the good offices of the Jewish Family Services, the Exodus is re-enacted through song, food and story at a table set in the Passover tradition.

Kulanu is BEKI’s outreach program for adults with special needs. Kulanu is supported by The David & Lil- lian Levine Endowment for People with Special Needs at Congregation Beth El-Keser Israel, which is managed by the Jewish Foundation of Greater New Haven.

Hagadot and Seder Plates at Giftshop

Hagadot (do-it-yourself guide and service books) for Pesah, including the Rabbinical Assembly’s Passover Hag- gadah: The Feast of Freedom, are available at the Sisterhood Giftshop and wherever fine Judaica is sold. The Giftshop also offers a significant collection of decorative seder plates and other Pesah supplies (such as toy frogs).

Bediqat Hametz & Biur Hametz

On the night of Sunday March 24, it is customary to perform Bediqat Hametz, the final check for leaven before Passover. This procedure can be done as a spiritual or fun ritual with children or adults. On the next morning, Monday March 25, it is customary to perform Biur Hametz, a final “search and destroy” mission for leaven, to insure compliance with the rule against possessing or eating hametz during the festival. Instructions for Bediqat Hametz and Biur Hametz can be found in most Hagadot, including the Rabbinical Assembly’s Passover Haggadah: The Feast of Freedom.

Siyyum Bekhorot: Feast or Famine

The Fast of the First Born is Monday March 25, the morning before the first seder. Firstborn who attend the Monday morning service from 7 to 7:45 may conclude their fast by partaking of the seudat mitzva (obligatory feast) celebrating a siyyum, the conclusion of a study project. Services and siyyum will end by 8:20 a.m. All may attend and participate in the siyyum and mini-seuda.

Let All Who Are Hungry . . .

The Seder of Pesah is a wonderful opportunity to welcome others into our homes. Our congregation comprises many people who may not have extended family locally, do not have Jewish relatives, are new to the area, or who otherwise would benefit greatly from a Seder invitation. If you are able to open your Seder to additional guests, please contact Rabbi Tilsen at your earliest opportunity at (203) 389-2108 x10 (jtitsen@beki.org). If you are able to host an adult who is a mental health services consumer or who has developmental disabilities, or would like to host another guest, please contact Special Outreach Coordinator Ina Silverman (203) 389-2108 x13 or principal@beki.org).

Community Second Seder at TBS

Temple Beth Sholom in Hamden is hosting the Masorti-Conservative Community Second Seder open to the public on the second night of Passover, Tuesday March 26.

For reservations (required) and information, contact Temple Beth Sholom (203) 288-7748 betsholomhanden@aol.com. Special Needs Seder participants may ask for help in arranging transportation from (203) 288-7748.

Service Times for Pesah

Festival morning service is 9:15a to noon on Tuesday March 26 and Wednesday March 27.

Afternoon and Evening services are not held at BEKI on the nights of the seder (Monday and Tuesday nights). Services on Wednesday afternoon are from 5:45 to 6:05.

Hol HaMoed: The Intermediate Days

While we observe the two initial and two final days of Pesah as major holidays, which include most of the restrictions on melakha (“work”) followed on Shabbat, the intermediate days are observed as semi-holidays. Ideally, one avoids or minimizes melakha during this period as well, but in our setting most observant Jews simply go to work or school as usual. Melakha is a technical rabbinic term used to define the set of actions that are prohibited on the Sabbath Day, based on the 39 categories of acts involved in creating the Temple, which is the Biblical context in which the term is used.

On the festival days (hag), tefillin are not worn, but on Hol HaMoed it is common to wear tefillin in the morning until after the amida and to remove them before Hallel. (Others omit tefillin altogether in this period.) During Hol HaMoed, as in the entire month of Nisan, the Tahanun (supplication) is omitted in the daily services. Hallel and musaf are recited daily, and the passage Ya`ale veYavo is included in the amida and in Birkat haMazon (grace after meals).

The prohibition against possessing and eating hametz remains in force. One should seek to make the period celebratory. In the idyllic future, the period should be a general public holiday when all can skip work without concern for income or security.
Pesah Candle Lighting

The first night of Passover is Monday night March 25; candle lighting in New Haven is at 6:51 p.m. For the second night, candle lighting should be after 7:51 (an hour later). Because it is not permitted to strike matches on the Festival days, our practice is to light a flame before the festival begins that will burn at least 26 hours, and to use that flame to light the Pesah candles the second night.

Candle lighting for the seventh day, Sunday March 31, is at 6:51 p.m., and on Monday night April 1 at 7:51.

Shir HaShirim – Song of Songs

The Biblical love poetry of Shir HaShirim - Song of Songs will be read on the morning of Shabbat Pesah March 30 after the haftara reading. Tradition ascribes the work to King Solomon himself, writing 2,900 years ago. Celebrate the spring holiday of Pesah with this beautiful and moving reading.

Sefira – Counting the Omer

At the second Seder (Tuesday night March 26), we begin daily sefirat ha-omer (counting of the omer), a counting of days to Shavuot, the next major festival. The counting, preferably done each night for 49 nights, is an expression of eager anticipation, commemorating the period of expectation and preparation we experienced in the Exodus from Egypt until the revelation at Sinai.

The simple home ceremony is printed in most siddurim (prayer books), including Sim Shalom, immediately after the weekday evening service. While it is a mitzva prescribed for adults, sefirat ha-omer can also be a fun, artistic and joyous ritual for families with children.

In the days before printed calendars, calendar watches and daily newspapers, the sefira served to keep the liturgical calendar of the Jewish People synchronized, no simple accomplishment, given the dispersion and isolation of much of the community. The term omer refers to the measure (one handful) of grain that was used to create a physical relic of the counting. With a physical reminder, even illiterate people could do a recount in case they forgot the day’s number.

Families with young children may use this opportunity to help their children understand and experience anticipation, planning, counting and hope.

Teach us to number our days, that we may attain a heart of wisdom — Psalm 90:12

Yizkor Memorial Service

The Yizkor Memorial Service will be held during the 9:15 Shabbat Festival morning service on Tuesday April 2. The Festival service includes a Shaharit morning service, Hallel (Psalms of praise), a Torah reading and Haftara, and the Musaf additional service, and concludes by 12:10 p.m. The Yizkor memorial service is one of four such services during the year that help us recognize our feelings of loss, which are often especially intense during the Pesah season, and to honor the memories of our loved ones.

Yom HaShoah – Holocaust Memorial Day

Yom HaShoah, a memorial day for the hurban, the destruction of Jewish civilization in Europe, will be observed on Motse’ei Shabbat (Saturday night) April 6 and Sunday April 7.

Sisterhood is selling yellow Holocaust memorial candles this year. Candles may be purchased from the Sisterhood Giftshop on Sundays 11 to noon when Religious School is in session, or call Mimi Glenn (203) 397-3851 any other time.

Yom HaZikaron, Yom HaAtzmaut

Yom HaZikaron, Israeli Memorial Day, is observed Sunday 14 April and Monday 15 April 2013; Yom HaAtzmaut, Israel Independence Day, is observed on Monday night 15 April and Tuesday 16 April 2013. These back-to-back holidays recognize the combination of suffering and joy, of sacrifice and achievement that often necessarily come together in our lives. All of these days are marked liturgically in public worship at BEKI.
Peace and Kos Miriam

The kos Miriam has become an increasingly popular addition to the Passover seder. It is derived from the legend of Miriam’s Well that appears in a number of midrashim. The rabbis propose the existence of this well by connecting the circumstances of Miriam’s death in Numbers 20:1 with the account of the waters of Meriba (Numbers 20:2ff) that follows immediately. Based upon this connection, the rabbis surmise that Miriam’s death resulted in the dearth of water, and they accredit to her the existence of a miraculous well that accompanied the Israelites on their wanderings in the wilderness and provided them with drinking water.

“An objection was raised: R. Jose the son of R. Judah says: Three good leaders had risen for Israel, namely: Moses, Aaron and Miriam and for their sake three good things were conferred upon Israel, namely: the well, the pillar of cloud, and the manna. The well, for the merit of Miriam; the pillar for the merit of Aaron: the manna for the merit of Moses. When Miriam died the well disappeared, as it is said: And Miriam died there (Num 22:1) and immediately follows the verse: And there was no water for the congregation...” BT Ta’anit 9a

There are those who argue that Moses is not mentioned in the Haggada or during the seder so why should we include Miriam. Agree or disagree?

Uri Uri. Awake and greet the new dawn as we celebrate 70 years of Torah Fund. Share Our Pride in What We’ve Accomplished: $90 Million in 70 years. Shalom from BRS

Tu beShevat came with the requisite eating of dried fruits from Israel, but this year our celebration was supplemented by a lesson about ba’al tashhit (don’t be wasteful) provided by our beloved wizard, CJ May. Students learned about Tu beShevat as the original Earth Day, and CJ taught them about the magic of composting. We took a little field trip out to the parking lot to visit the new BEKI composter.

Most of us are familiar with recycling paper, glass, metal, and plastic, but not everyone knows that most food waste can be recycled into nutrient-rich soil by composting. BEKI’s Kiddush Committee does its best to renew the earth with food waste from Saturday lunches. You also may have noticed the list of proposed names for the composter on the bulletin board in the school wing. My favorite is The Compostador. If you want information about composting I can put you in touch with knowledgeable folks.

Purim saw BRS families celebrating, some in costume, at the seuda (literally “meal,” but it really means “party”). Thank you to parents who helped deliver shalah manot bags to people who could not attend. A great time was had by all. We look forward to Pesah and learning about what freedom from slavery meant to our ancestors and what it means to us today. If anyone does not have seders to attend please contact me ASAP.

Dear Rabbi,

How early can we make our house kosher for Pesah? Can we eat kosher for Pesah foods on our Pesah dishes before Pesah?

Signed, Early Bird

Dear Early Bird,

You can make your kitchen kosher for Pesah anytime you want. You can even keep it kosher for Pesah all year if you want. Just don’t eat matza in the couple of weeks before Pesah.

Dear Rabbi,

How clean is clean for Passover? I have spent two weeks cleaning, but no matter how much I clean, I can never be sure all the hametz is gone.

Signed, Compulsive Kitchen Cleaner

Dear Compulsive,

Pharaoh freed the slaves. This means that Pesah is supposed to be a happy holiday. Joy on the festival is a halakhic (legal) requirement. As the Good Book says, “You shall rejoice on your festivals.” Clean is not the same as kosher, although they are related concepts. If you put in two to three times your normal weekly effort into cleaning (assuming you do clean regularly), then it is time to say davenu (enough). Any hidden crumbs of hametz are sold and nullified, relieving you of liability. The process of kashering your kitchen, if done diligently, also relieves you of any liability. Happy Pesah!

Dear Rabbi,

The following notice appeared as a “special alert” in Kashrus Magazine (March 2004 p. 7): “Manischewitz Chocolate Coins (‘OU-Pareve’) bear the words: ‘In G-d We Trust.’ A number of leading rabbonim have Paskened that one may not eat them nor throw away the chocolate and wrappers, if they too have those words. Consult your rabbi.”

So rabbi, I am consulting you. What should I do if we have those coins?

Signed, In R-bbi We Trust

Dear Trust,

Our halakha (law) holds that there are five basic Hebrew names of the Almighty that are so sacred that they may not be treated casually or erased. Among those are the tetragramaton, the four-letter name beginning with yud, which is unpronounced and is usually replaced by “Adonai” (“my Lord”) when reading or praying aloud, and is sometimes replaced with “HaShem” (“The Name”). It is sometimes symbolized as a hei apostrophe or as a double yud in Hebrew.

Another sacred name is the Hebrew equivalent of “Al-lah” and its variations. This name begins with the letters alef lamed and ends with a consonantal hei, or, in the most common variations, ends with the in or enu suffix. This name is most often translated as “God.” It is the generic name used to describe both God and false gods (as in, “You shall have no other gods before me”).

Some people wish to transfer that sanctity to the common English word “God” (hence, “G-d”). But then the substitute “G-d,” since it signifies “God,” would have to be written “G - - - ” and there would be no end to it. Nevertheless some people persist in granting sanctity to this English word. Although there is no basis for this in law, who am I to stand in the way of popular or personal piety. If you have such coins, especially if the chocolate is still there, and especially if it is milk chocolate, please bring them to my office and I will dispose of them properly. If the chocolate is already gone, and you have only the foil wrappers, recycle them.

Dear Rabbi,

I saw the Pope on television and noticed that he wears a yarmulke. No offense meant, but is the Pope Jewish?

Signed, Bareheaded in Beaver Hill

Dear Bareheaded

No, the Pope is not Jewish. The correct word for the Pope’s skullcap is a zucchetto, which is an Italian word that basically means “beanie.” Zucchetos are color-coded skullcaps worn by Catholic clergy: priests wear black, bishops wear purple, cardinals wear red, and the Pope wears white.

The Jewish practice of covering the head dates back to ancient times when the kohanim in the Temple wore special headaddresses.

The morning blessing “oter Yisrael betifara – who crowns Israel with beauty,” was originally said before putting on the turban. The Talmud states that a man should not take four steps without his head being covered. We can keep our heads covered by wearing any sort of hat or turban. One choice is the kippa, which in Yiddish is called Yarmulke, in English, skullcap, or in Italian Zucchetto. The kippa has no religious significance in and of itself — it is merely one type of hat. It is nothing more than a beanie.

Today, we follow a moderate path and make a point to keep our heads covered during prayer, study, meals and other religious acts, such as playing baseball.

Although he wears a kippa, the Pope is not Jewish. And although we wear Zucchetos, we are not the Pope. Once again we see that you don’t have to be Jewish to be Jewish, but it helps.

Darshanim

Darshan – noun, plural dar-sha-nim. Judaism. a preacher or teacher of Aggada or Halakha in a synagogue.

Rabbi Tilsen has invited the following speakers to serve as guest Darshanim:

Yaakov Gottlieb, son of Miriam Feinstein, bar mitzva celebrant, will serve as darshan on Shabbat morning March 2, parshat Ki Tisa, Shabbat Para (Sabbath of the Cow).

Steven Fraade will serve as darshan on March 23, Shabbat HaGadol (The Great Sabbath), parashat Tsav.

Rabbi Murray Levine will serve as darshan on April 6, parashat Shemini. Rabbi Levine is celebrating the 72nd anniversary of his becoming a bar mitzva.

Helene Sapadin will serve as darshanit on April 20, parashiyot Aharei Mot – Qedoshim. Helene is a faculty member of the BEKI Religious School.

Shabbat Shalom Torah Study

The Shabbat Shalom Torah Study meets every other Saturday morning at 10:45 in the office and is an ideal setting for veteran and novice shul-goers alike to explore the scripture readings and liturgy of the day in a supportive setting. Expertly led by Steven Fraade, with Rabbi Alan Lovins, Rabbi Murray Levine, Nadav Sela, David Kuperstock, Isaiah Cooper, Rabbi Eric Silver and others, the Shabbat Shalom Torah Study is a nurturing exploration of practice and theory presented in a participatory, non-threatening and multi-generational setting. Many members who take advantage of this unique offering feel a deeper sense of awe born of increased understanding and appreciation of the Torah reading, Haftara (Prophetic reading) and liturgy.

The program often focuses on the scriptural readings, but also addresses the prayer liturgy and other topics related to the liturgical calendar, scriptural readings or current issues of concern.

Everyone is welcome to participate regardless of religious status or background. It is suitable for mature, or at least well-behaved, youth along with adults.

Mishna Megila

On the first two Shabbat afternoons in March following the minha afternoon service (which begins at candle lighting time), explore chapter two of Mishna Megila compiled in the third century by Rabbi Yehuda HaNasi of Tsiipori, northern Israel. Megila deals with the laws of Purim and the exegesis of the Book of Esther, as well as the rules for reading Megilat Ester (Book of Esther), the Torah and other liturgical practices. Thirty minutes; with Rabbi Tilsen and others; Hebrew text and live oral translation provided.

Mondays

Rashi Study Group: Shoftim

Each Monday morning from 7:45 to 8:30 adults meet in the Library Chapel to read Rashi’s commentary on the Tanakh (Hebrew Bible). The Rashi Study Group (RSG) is studying the Book of Shoftim (Judges). Characters in the narrative include the Prophet Devora, General Baraq, Warlord Yiftah, Mrs. Manoah, and Samson and Delila. It is possible to join the study group for a single meeting or to begin at any time. Knowledge of Hebrew is not necessary. Rashi purported to explain the peshat of the text, i.e., the meaning in its historical, literary and linguistic context. Visitors and new participants are welcome. Hebrew and English texts are available. The RSG meets immediately following the 7 a.m. shaharit service. On Monday March 25, erev Pesah, the Study Group will be superseded by a siyyum bekhorot. On Monday May 27, Memorial Day, the Study Group will meet after the 9 a.m. service, that is, from 9:45 to 10:30.

With Jon-Jay Tilsen.

Tuesdays
Hebrew

New sections may open this season. To register for the next session, contact Peggy at office@beki.org.

Wednesdays
Hebrew Word of the Week

The Wednesday morning service (shaharit) features a 180-second “Hebrew word of the Week” to promote the learning of Hebrew. The Hebrew language is highly structured. Most words are based on three-letter roots, and are made with a limited set of verb or noun forms. By learning a few dozen roots and a small set of word-forms, it is possible to roughly translate Hebrew words isolated from any context, something less often possible in English. The Word of the Week often relates to the weekly scriptural readings, enhancing personal study and public Torah discussion.

Rabbis’ Study Group

Wednesdays with Murray is a weekly study group exclusively for rabbis, facilitated by Rabbi Murray Levine. The Wednesday study group affords local rabbis an opportunity to pursue their own talmud torah (Torah study) in a “safe” setting and with opportunities to learn from each other’s experience and insight. The study group meets Wednesday mornings in the Rosenkrantz Family Library. For more information, call Rabbi Murray Levine at (203) 397-2513.

Thursdays

Mini Morning Learning Service

The Thursday morning services are supplemented with commentary and teaching relating to the history, themes, choreography and language of the daily morning service. Shaharit service is from 8:15 to 9:15 on Thursdays; on other weekdays, the service begins at 7 a.m.

Sanhedrin Talmud Study Group

The Sanhedrin Talmud Study Group meets weekly on Thursdays during the lunch hour (12:30 to 1:30). The Group has met weekly since 1999. For some participants, this is their first direct experience with Talmud text; for others, it is a continuation of a long journey. The Group focuses on the issues raised in the Talmud, with less attention to the technical aspects of the text. Knowledge of Hebrew or Aramaic is helpful but not required.

The Talmud, based on an oral text, has no beginning or end. One can begin study at any point; now is the best time. The Sanhedrin Talmud Study Group meets in BEKI’s Rosenkrantz Family Library. For information, contact Isaiah Cooper at his law office icoop@cooplaw.net.

Art Talk & Psalms: Shabbat Schmooze

A Shabbat Shmooze on the Psalms will take place at 1 p.m. on Shabbat, March 16, in the BEKI Chapel. It will feature a talk by Sharon Dagan, whose Psalm-based paintings are currently on exhibit at BEKI, on the inspiration for her art work. BEKI’s Bob Oakes will present background information on the Psalms and both will be available to discuss the paintings and their literary elements.

Lead On

BEKI is looking for new leadership ideas, energy, expertise, and commitment. If you would like to take on a leadership role, please send me an email (president@beki.org) or give me a call (203.397.3046) and let me know what area(s) you’re interested in. Of course, if you’d rather be a worker bee, there’s always room in the hive for that, too!
-- Carole Bass, president

Yishar Kohakhem & Toda Rabba – Purim Readings and Seuda

Fresh Paint

The aroma of drying paint lingers in the washrooms in the classroom wing upstairs, as they were painted in February.

Warm Enough

Six classrooms were fitted with programmed thermostats. Room users should find the rooms more temperate during the heating season. The upgrade will make the rooms more comfortable and will insure that our heating resources are used more efficiently. Please report any “cold” or “hot” rooms to the office.

Abraham’s Tent

The week of March 11-17, BEKI will co-host 12 men from Columbus House in a joint program with Interfaith Cooperative Ministries, as we did last year. The men are housed at the Church of the Holy Spirit in West Haven. Volunteers are needed for support activities.

Cook at BEKI in the early afternoon of Tuesday March 12 (three volunteers needed). To volunteer to cook, sign up at http://doodle.com/u8bck26qr7ba7xa9

Join the men and volunteers for dinner, conversation and after-dinner activities at the church from 5:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Tuesday March 12 (4 volunteers needed). To volunteer to dine with the men and other volunteers from BEKI and the church, sign up at http://doodle.com/bveyw3kfad-vwegme

Overnight supervision with others from church and BEKI (3-4 each night) each night from Monday March 11 through Sunday March 17 from no later than 9 p.m. through 6:30 a.m. (many volunteers needed); sign up at http://doodle.com/8qwyz7qd924mg2b7

Contact Darryl Kuperstock kuperst@aol.com or Ivan Alvarez ivan.alvarez@officedepot.com for more information or to volunteer.

Read Torah

Thank you to Marsha Beller for coordinating Torah readings for the book of Shemot (Exodus) through March 9. Rabbi Tilsen is coordinator for the book of VaYiqra (Leviticus) from March 16 through May 4 (including Pesah); to reserve a reading contact jjtilsen@beki.org.

Now Hear This

A chart showing the enhanced amplification zones in the sanctuary is posted in the sanctuary just inside the entry.

Got Tools?

We could use a few quality common tools such as screwdrivers, hammers, wrenches, pliers and the like, as well as good snow shovels. Please contact Peggy office@beki.org if you have items you’d like to donate.

Building Codes

The old building access and alarm code is going to be inactivated as of 15 March. If you are currently using the old code or do not know which code you have, contact the BEKI office office@beki.org (203) 389-2108 x 14.
It’s Snow Ordinary Minyan

Welcome to the new BEKI minyan — the Sheleg Shleppers minyan. Amazingly, people made it to BEKI on Shabbat morning and throughout the weekend of our record-breaking 36-inch snow. Here is a photo of the Sunday Maariv minyan. A big thanks to the intrepid skiers, snow-shoers, and hikers who helped BEKI provide a regular daily minyan for community members.
