Online Holy Day Info

A complete schedule of High Holy Days services, along with additional information and forms, is available at www.beki.org/yamimnoraim.html. A schedule of Sukkot and Shemini Atseret services is available at www.beki.org/sukkot.html.

Volunteers Needed

To volunteer either to help with planning or to participate in our High Holy Day worship services, please contact Darryl Kuperstock at kuperst@aol.com. Help is needed for mailings, Break Fast shopping and planning, greeters and ushers, minyan makers (early attendees), English readings, printing Yizkor Memorial Book, and more. If you have any questions, please speak with Darryl.

Need a Letter for Employer or School?

Shul members occasionally need letters to employers or principals explaining the nature of the Jewish holiday observance. Despite the high level of understanding in our community, there is still a need for education and information. It is important that our children be in shul for all of Yontif.

If you would like such a letter for Rosh HaShana, Yom Kippur or Sukkot, contact Rabbi Tilsen at jjtilsen@beki.org or 203.389-2108 x10.

Selihot at Temple Beth Sholom

Our affiliated Temple Beth Sholom in Hamden will host the Conservative-Masorti Community First Selihot Service on Saturday night Aug. 31. Maariv and Havdala will be held at 8:30 p.m.; at 8:45 p.m., the film “The Flat” will be screened; 10:15 to 11 p.m., discussion and refreshments; 11 p.m. Selihot service (ending at midnight).

The selihot (penitential) prayers are said during the middle of the night during the period immediately before Rosh HaShana and Yom Kippur. It is believed that a heightened sense of spiritual awareness can be achieved during those hours. The Conservative Communal service is sponsored by Congregations B’nai Jacob, Beth Sholom, Or Shalom and BEKI.

High Holy Days Participation

Please be sure to return your High Holy Days volunteer and participation forms. We will definitely need help with every aspect of our holiday celebrations. The form is also available on the BEKI website at www.beki.org/forms.html. Members who have received invitations for honors must respond and confirm their acceptance.

the High Holy Days, as he did in 5773. Michael is a BEKI alumnus and a student of Rabbi Alan Lovins, who served as Hazan Rishon for seventeen years. In addition to Michael, the services will again be led by BEKI members serving as volunteer hazzanim. Rabbi Tilsen will conduct the services, as he has each year since 1993.

Services are organized and led entirely by our members. Generally, Michael will lead the morning Torah service and musaf on all three days, as well as Kol Nidre, Maariv and Neila on Yom Kippur. Birkhot ha-Shahar (morning blessings) and Pesuqei de-Zimra (Verses of Song) represent a poetry reading that creates or reinforces a spiritually sensitive atmosphere, which is an experience unto itself as well as prelude to the recitation of Shema and Amida. Shaharit morning services, essentially the recitation of Shema and Amida, include popular “sing along” Hebrew piyyutim (poems). Musaf services, the particular additional Amida for the holy day, include several interpretative or contemporary English readings as well as cantorial (and sometimes choral) elaborations. The shofar is sounded after the haftara reading and again during musaf on both days of Rosh HaShana. The recitation of Shema and hearing the shofar are both considered Biblical precepts not to be missed.

Tickets are required for adult entrance to most services. Among other reasons, this is to ensure the safety and security of the Congregation. Full-time students and military personnel on active duty may enter upon presentation of proper identification. Every person in the building must be identified before entry and is subject to search.

Some of the ushers serving during the Holy Days may be new members. Veteran members who do not recognize the ushers are urged to introduce themselves, as our ushers wish to meet as many members and visitors as they can. If you forget your tickets, our ushers will be able to find your name on the members or guests list.

For safety and planning reasons, children must be pre-registered to participate in children’s services. For registration information, contact office@beki.org or (203) 389-2108 x14.

If you are interested in babysitting service, please contact office@beki.org or (203) 389-2108 x14. Walk-in babysitting is not available and will not be available at all services unless a prior arrangement is made. Children and infants are welcome in the sanctuary; quiet non-electric toys are permitted.

Rosh HaShana

The date of Rosh HaShana with respect to the civil calendar is the earliest (night of Sept. 4) this year that it has been in the lifetime of our members; the next time the holyday occurs on Sept. 5 will be the year 2089 (may we merit good and long life).

Rosh HaShana services begin Wednesday night Sept. 4 at 7 p.m. with the Minha service, followed by Maariv at 7:15. Candle Lighting is at 7:03. The service concludes by 7:50 p.m. Morning services begin at 8:30 on Thursday Sept. 5; several services for children and youth, and a learners’ service, are held as well. Shofar is sounded at about 10:30 a.m. in the sanctuary; please come to the sanctuary at that hour, or as directed by the ushers, if you are elsewhere in the building.

Tashlikh (“casting”) services will be held on the first day of Rosh HaShana, Thursday Sept. 5, at 6 p.m., at the Edgewood Bridge and at the Whitney Museum Covered Bridge. For tashlikh at Beaver Pond Park, contact office@beki.org 389-2108 x14. The Tashlikh service is a popular outdoor event for people of all ages, and includes a brief prayer, poetry and singing. It is held beside a body of natural water.

On Thursday afternoon of Rosh HaShana, minha service begins at 7 p.m., followed by the evening service at 7:20. Candle lighting is after 8:03.

On Friday Sept. 6, morning services are also at 8:30 a.m. Youth services are held as well. Shofar is sounded on Tuesday morning as well. Afternoon service (minha) begins at 6 o’clock on Friday, and is followed immediately by the Shabbat evening service, ending at 6:45 (ending time incorrectly printed on earlier publications). Candle lighting is 7 p.m. Because Shabbat immediately follows the Holy Day, the weekly Qabbalat Shabbat service is abbreviated and comprises only the Psalm for Shabbat, according to common practice.

For instructions on preparing meals for Shabbat in compliance with halakhic considerations in light of the three-day sequence, please see Siddur Sim Shalom for Shabbat and Festivals p. 306 s.v. Eruv Tavshilin.

Qever Avot Cemetery Memorial Services

The annual Qever Avot Cemetery Memorial Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. at the Hamden Cemetery, and at 11:30 a.m. at the West Haven Cemetery on Sunday Sept. 8, which is the Sunday between Rosh HaShana and Yom Kippur. The hour is 30 minutes later than most years because of the longer morning service marking Tsom Gedalia that coincides this year with the Sunday of Qever Avot. Rabbi Tilsen will lead a brief communal memorial service and will be available for individual prayers.

Those who wish to visit the graves of their ancestors or loved ones but are unable to do so because of distance are invited to attend along with those whose loved ones are buried in the BEKI cemeteries. If you would like a ride to the service, please contact the office a few days in advance.

In addition, a representative of the Cemetery Association will be present to answer questions and concerns of those owning or considering the purchase of plots at the BEKI cemeteries. Now is a good time to purchase your choice of prime locations for traditional Jewish burial in these historic cemeteries. Members enjoy a substantial discount; only traditionally honored remains of legally Jewish persons may be interred in these cemeteries.

Directions to the cemeteries and more information can be found at www.beki.org/cemetery.html. For information on cemetery purchases or upkeep, please contact the BEKI Cemetery Association at cemetery@beki.org or (203) 389-2108 x57.

Yom Kippur
On the afternoon before Yom Kippur, Friday Sept. 13, the Minha service begins at 6:45 p.m. Candle Lighting is 6:48 p.m. (or earlier). The Kol Nidre and Maariv Evening services begin promptly at 7:05 and end by 9. Shaharit services begin at 9 a.m.; the Yizkor Memorial service begins after 11 a.m. The Minha Afternoon service begins at 5, and is followed immediately by the Neila and Maariv services. The services end with Havdala and the sounding of the Shofar at 7:45 p.m.

George G. Posener Break Fast
Following the concluding Yom Kippur services on Motse’ei Shabbat (Saturday night) Sept. 14, please join us as we gather for our amazing community Break Fast. For many years, George G. Posener sponsored the break fast in memory of his family. George G. Posener died on Yom Kippur 5772 (2011), so this year the break fast honors his memory as well.

The George G. Posener Family Memorial Break Fast is prepared entirely by members of the BEKI community. Overseen by Darryl Kuperstock and Linden Grazier, most of the preparation and all of the cooking is done in advance, but the assembly and plating (and clean-up) of this banquet is done by the fantastic volunteers who join us in the kitchen during the afternoon break on Yom Kippur. It’s fun, intense, and extremely satisfying – so come help us out this year.

The George G. Posener Family Memorial Yom Kippur Break Fast Fund at Congregation Beth El-Keser Israel in blessed memory of his wife, parents, sisters, brother and two precious sons was established by George G. Posener in 2001 to create a lasting memorial at the time of the yahrzeits of his family members. Proceeds from this endowment provide for a special and meaningful community gathering at the end of Yom Kippur. The Posener Fund is held and managed by the Jewish Foundation of Greater New Haven.

AWESOME TIPS

In preparation for the full-day fast of Yom Kippur, it is suggested that caffeine users reduce their intake to reduce withdrawal symptoms on the Holy Day. Some people avoid wearing leather shoes on Yom Kippur, so do not be surprised to see canvas sneakers or other non-leather shoes in use. Some also follow the custom of wearing a kittel (white robe) or other white garments on Yom Kippur. People who need to eat or drink or take medication on Yom Kippur may speak with an usher, or contact the office in advance, for assistance if needed. Rabbi Tilsen notes that “People for whom fasting represents a significant medical threat are prohibited from fasting. Water, milk or a simple meal should be consumed as needed.”

Taking a Stand
While it is customary to stand for some parts of the service, those for whom standing is difficult, impossible or dangerous should feel comfortable sitting. Rabbi Tilsen comments that “You get five points for answering ‘Amen!’ but only one point for standing, so keep it in perspective. This applies to people of all ages.”
Sukkot, Shemini Atseret and Simhat Torah

Sukkot is Coming
If you feel a sense of loss at the end of the High Holy Days, do not despair: it is time for Sukkot, called the Festival by our ancestors. Lulav & Etrog are used each day of Sukkot except Shabbat, until and including Hoshana Rabba. Information on the festival observances and schedules are published at www.beki.org/sukkot.html.

Set up of the Morris “Moishe” Schnitman Memorial Sukka is planned for Sunday Sept. 15 from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Come when you can. Add a personal touch by bringing some of your own sekakh (evergreen branches are preferred) for the roof to enhance the beauty and aroma of our congregational sukka. Breakdown and storage are planned for Sunday Sept. 29, following Shaharit. Bring gloves; portable power drivers and ladders are welcome. Please come and help. For information and to let us know if you can help, contact David Kuperstock (203) 415-4026 or ndk1024@gmail.com.

Lulav & Etrog Orders
BEKI Religious School will offer lulav and etrog sets. To order, please contact Ina at principal@beki.org (203) 389-2108 x13.

Sukkot & Shabbat Hol HaMoed
Sukkot begins on Wednesday evening Sept. 18. Minha afternoon service begins at 5:45 p.m., followed immediately by the evening service, ending at 6:20. The services will be held in the Sukka, weather permitting. Candle lighting on Wednesday night is at 6:39.

The morning service on Thursday Sept. 19 begins at 9:15 and includes the recitation of Hallel, waving of Lulav and Etrog, and the recitation of a Hoshana for that day. Services on Thursday night also begin at 5:45, but candle lighting on Thursday is after 7:39. Services on Friday morning Sept. 20 are from 9:15 to 11:36 and again include the taking of Lulav and Etrog.

Candle lighting on Friday night Sept. 20 is at 6:36. Services begin at 6 p.m. on Friday, and at 9:15 on Shabbat morning. We do not use Lulav and Etrog on Shabbat.

Shabbat Hol HaMoed
Shabbat Hol HaMoed, Saturday Sept. 21, is marked by reading selections from the Biblical Book of Qohelet ("Ecclesiastes"). Qohelet, attributed by tradition to King Solomon in his old age, is a “wisdom” book that many see as being out of step with the rest of the Torah. While it includes such well-known passages as “To everything there is a season” and “There is nothing new under the sun,” it also contains statements that seem cynical or nihilistic. The Book will be chanted according to its beautiful and ancient melody.

Shabbat (Saturday) afternoon service begins at 5:45 and ends about 6:20.

Hol HaMoed Sukkot
“Hol HaMoed,” also known as the “intermediate” days of the festival, are those days between the first two and last two days of Sukkot (and of Pesah). They have a “semi-holiday” status. The rules against melakha ("work") that apply on Shabbat and Festivals are not fully in force during this period, although we are encouraged to take this time as a holiday and to avoid work as much as possible. Our weekday morning services are enhanced with a brief Torah reading, the recitation of the musical “Hallel” section of Psalms, and a brief Musaf (additional) service. Weekday morning services thus take 60 minutes, instead of our usual 30 to 45 minutes. Afternoon and evening services are the usual length. The lulav (branches) and etrog (citron) are waved each morning of Hol HaMoed Sukkot (except Shabbat), and one is obliged to dwell (to eat is to live) in a sukka. Some morning and evening services will be held in the BEKI sukkah. Some people do not wear tefillin during Hol HaMoed; others (common Ashkenazic practice outside of Israel) wear them for shaharit but remove them before Hallel.

Hosanna! Hosanna!
The Hoshana Rabba (“Great Hosanna”) morning service on Wednesday Sept. 25 begins at 7 and ends by 8:50. This is one of the most colorful, fun and tactile services of the year, featuring seven circuits around the sukkah or shul with lulav and etrog (palm and citron) and the hoshana service in which willow twigs are beaten on the chairs. Special holiday melodies make this an unforgettable spiritual experience. Be sure to come to this “service for all ages.”

Hoshana Rabba is a semi-festival on which work is not strictly prohibited as it is on the major festivals. It serves as a “closing ceremony” for the weeklong Sukkot observance in preparation for the concluding festival of Shemini Atseret. Weather permitting, the Hoshana Rabba service will be in the suka.

Must be at work or school before service ends? Come for shaharit, Hallel and Torah service, or as much as you can. Dropping off kids at Ezra Academy or another destination? Come for the later part of the service, and wave lulav and etrog following the directions in the red Siddur on page 49 or ask for assistance from another member.

This year, Shabbat immediately follows the festivals. As cooking on the festivals is permitted only for enjoyment on the festivals, and cooking for Shabbat must be completed before the onset of Shabbat, special measures may be taken. For instructions on preparing meals for Shabbat in compliance with halakhic considerations in light of the three-day sequence, please see Siddur Sim Shalom for Shabbat and Festivals p. 306 s.v. Eruv Tavshilin.

Shemini Atseret & Yizkor Memorial Service

The Festival of Shemini Atseret (“Eighth Day of Assembly”) serves as a conclusion to the autumn Festival of Sukkot (“Booths”). The festival begins Wednesday night Sept. 25. The minha service begins at 5:45 p.m.; the festival maariv service begins immediately after, about 5:55 p.m. It is customary to light a memorial candle on that night immediately before lighting the Festival candles. Candle lighting is 6:27 (or earlier).

During the morning service, which begins at 9:15 on Thursday Sept. 26, Hallel is chanted. The unique festival musah (musical mode) is used for this service. For Carole Bass’s comment on Hallel, go to http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ak2Wgg2Xvks (youtube cv “Carole Bass Hallel”).

The Yizkor Memorial Service is also incorporated into the Shemini Atseret liturgy. In the Yizkor service we call upon the memories of our ancestors and loved ones who, while not physically present, are part of our “Assembly.” During that memorial service, individual and communal prayers and remembrances will be offered for all of our departed loved ones.

Simhat Torah Celebration

Congregation Beth El-Keser Israel is the place to be for the evening and morning of Simhat Torah. Minha services begin at 5:45 p.m. and evening services begin at 6 on Thursday Sept. 26. Evening services include seven haqafot (circumambulatory dances) with Torah scrolls and a brief Torah reading, the only time that we read Torah in public at night. Candle lighting on Thursday night is after 7:27.

Festival Morning services begin at 9:15 on Friday Sept. 27. Three Torah scrolls are removed from the ark (around 10 a.m.) and seven brief haqafot are conducted. The final chapters of the Book of Deuteronomy, parashat Ve-Zot Ha-Berakha, are read, followed by the opening passages of the Book of Genesis, part of parasha Bereishit. This concludes the annual Torah reading cycle, and begins the new cycle. This is particularly joyful at BEKI because so many members are involved in Torah reading throughout the year, and these readers dedicate considerable effort to preparing accurate and melodious chantings. A maftir portion is read from Numbers, which describes the observance of Shemini Atseret in the ancient Temple. The haftara is recited from the opening passages of Joshua, which is the sequel to Deuteronomy, sometimes called the “sixth book” of the Five Books of Moses. Goodie Bags will be presented by the Sisterhood to all the deserving children at services evening and morning. Afternoon minha service begins at 6 o’clock as is usual for Friday nights at BEKI, and is followed by the Maariv service, ending about 6:40 (earlier than usual). Shabbat candle lighting is 6:24.

Annual BEKI Family Sukka Hop

Date: Thursday Sept. 19
Time: Departs 12:45 p.m.

A light progressive meal and Sukkot activity will take place at each suka; please RSVP to Miriam, (203) 389-6137, by Sept. 14 so hosts can plan. Each minor child must be with a parent; please wear good walking shoes for the trek; bring your favorite songs to sing for the walks; and running strollers for your little ones.
R-E-S-P-E-C-T

When a person appears before the Throne of Judgment, the first question asked is not, ‘Have you believed in God?’ or ‘Have you prayed or performed ritual acts?’ But, ‘Have you dealt honorably, faithfully in all your dealings with your fellow human beings?’

How we deal with one another, whether through action or language, is a reflection of our commitment to derekh eretz – respect.

The Yom Kippur liturgy enjoins us to reflect on personal behavior and focuses principally on sins of speech and impaired interpersonal relations.

The rabbis asked: What is the most important day of the year? The answer: the day after Yom Kippur. That is when we determine if our prayers were sincere.

This year we hope that our focus on respect (derekh eretz) will heighten sensitivity within our sisterhood and in the lives of our members.

I asked for strength, and God gave me difficulties to make me strong.
I asked for wisdom, and God gave me problems to solve.
I asked for prosperity, and God gave me brawn and brain to work.
I asked for courage, and God gave me troubled people to help.
I asked for favors, and God gave me opportunities.
I received nothing I wanted.
I received everything I needed.
My prayers were answered.

Thank you for joining Sisterhood last year. We are looking to achieve 100 percent membership participation this year. Dues are still only $25 for the year. An invitation to join will follow in October with more details.

Before you know it Hanuka will be here (early this year). The first candle is the night of Nov. 27; the second is Nov. 28, Thanksgiving Day.

Our BEKI Gift Shop will have many new gifts for purchase for children, friends, relatives and your home.

BEKI Sisterhood wishes all our member congregants a Happy and Healthy New Year bright with hope and filled with peace and happiness.

made a commitment to the Torah Fund Campaign last year.
You can continue to do so just by purchasing cards for all occasions or by becoming a Benefactor. Join hundreds of other Jewish women across the U.S. in supporting The Jewish Theological Seminary (JTS) as a Benefactor at $180:

Mishpaha: Family

Not for nothing does the Torah begin with stories about families. The family in Judaism holds a central place, from the first family beginning with Adam and Eve through our own. Indeed the Amida prayer invokes our relationship to those first Jewish families, praising the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel and Leah, as a reminder that our connection as a community roots back to the fact that we are all – the entire Jewish people – one big family.

In choosing Mishpaha as the theme for the 5774 Torah Fund pin, as well as for the Women’s League focus for 5774, we are acknowledging both the sanctity that comes with being one big family and the complexity of our families and relationships. Today, there is no one kind of Jewish family. Our families are diverse and this pin, reflecting that diversity, is something to be worn proudly by women in all stages and kinds of family life: married, single, divorced, widowed, gay, straight, mothers, aunts, sisters, daughters. And as we support the programs of the Jewish Theological Seminary, Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies, and Schechter Institute of Jewish Studies, we proclaim that we as women in all walks of life are proudly shaping the future of the big, three-thousand-year-old Jewish family.

You can also support the JTS just by sending cards for any occasion. They are only $4 and include the stamp.

Thanking all who supported Women’s League Torah Fund: Benefactors and those who purchase cards not only receive the 5774 pin but have the honor of supporting Jewish men and women at the Seminary who will become our rabbis, cantors, teachers and lay leaders.

Women’s League for Conservative Judaism through Torah Fund is insuring our legacy to future generations of Conservative Jews.

Call Barbara Cushen to become a Benefactor (also would make a lovely gift to your wife, daughter or mother) or to send cards – (203) 407-0314.

Kadima News

Dear Parents,

As many of you already know, I won’t be returning next year as the BEKI-BJ Kadima Advisor. I’ve very much enjoyed leading the group this past year. Organizing and hosting the events has been a lot of fun, particularly because all of the Kadimaniks have been so amazing. Over the past year, I’ve been continually impressed by the openness, comradery, and enthusiasm of our group. BEKI-BJ Kadima truly is an exceptional organization! And this, of course, is due in no small part to the parents whose participation and support have made our activities possible. (Thank you again.)

Although I’ll be exploring new opportunities in New Haven, I’ve been asked to stay involved through the BEKI-BJ Youth Commission. So, I’ll still be around next year! And as always, please don’t hesitate to contact me with any Kadima issues. (My personal email address is shwerlin@gmail.com.)

As we look ahead to the coming year, the Youth Commission has decided to combine the responsibilities of the Kadima Advisor and USY (high school students) Advisor into a single position: Youth Coordinator. I have pasted the official job announcement below. In addition, I’d like to point out that, in the past, our youth advisors have come from a variety of backgrounds, from college students to established adults. Many congregations have found that parents often make the best youth advisors, in part because they are more personally invested and experienced. I encourage any parents interested in the position to contact me or another member of the Youth Commission for more information. It’s a wonderful way to actively be part of the “village” that raises our children.

– Steve Werlin

Seeking Youth Coordinator for Grades 4-12

The Joint BEKI-BJ Youth Commission is seeking a Youth Coordinator. This is a new 20-hour/week position, reporting to the Youth Commission. If you are interested, please apply (see below). If you know an appropriate candidate, please forward this announcement:

We are seeking a dynamic Youth Coordinator to run the Kadima/USY programs sponsored jointly by Congregations Beth-El Keser Israel (BEKI) and B’nai Jacob. This is a 20-hour/week position, providing top pay. Our ideal candidate must have a background working with youth, and, preferably, prior personal or professional involvement with the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism (USCJ) (e.g., USY, Nativ, Ramah, Day School, Religious School). Our Youth Coordinator must be self-motivated, organized, computer savvy, able to work independently, and must have strong verbal and written communication skills appropriate for middle-schoolers, teens, and adults. Car ownership is required. If interested, please email letter of interest and resume to: BEKIBJyouthcommission@gmail.com. Full job description is available at http://bekibjkadima.blogspot.com/p/jobs.html.

Best, Steve Werlin

An Introduction to Kadima and USY

Welcome to Kadima and USY! Our United Synagogue youth groups are sponsored jointly by both Congregations BEKI and BJ, and are overseen by our volunteer Joint Youth Commission and our professional Youth Coordinator. Kadima is for 5th through 8th graders. USY (United Synagogue Youth) is for 9th through 12th graders, and 8th graders beginning in January.

We offer many chapter and regional activities throughout the school year, and, in the summer, there are U.S. and Israel trips and a weeklong tri-regional summer camp at the end of August. Local activities include hikes, games, ice skating, sleepovers, Shabbat dinners, and tikkun olam activities to help others. You can find our activities listed at both Synagogues’ websites and weekly e-newsletters, and our teen leadership and Youth Coordinator will make contact with parents and teens throughout the year.

We hope your pre-teen and teen will join the fun! Have them bring a Jewish friend - we have had youth group members from Danbury to Essex, and from many different schools in the Greater New Haven region.

USY Update

As we say goodbye to days at the beach and the sticky, sugary bliss that is a hot popsicle in the sweltering New Haven heat, BEKI-BJ USYers are gearing up for another action-packed year. Our new board can’t wait to share some of their goals with you.

Batsheva Labowe-Stoll (a junior at the Jewish High School of CT), our Religious Education VP, plans to hold holiday-specific USY meetings to help members get into the spirit with fun facts, activities, and an overview of the meaning and practice behind the observance.

Eva Gerber (a junior at the Jewish High School of CT), our Social Action/Tikkun Olam VP, promises not only to survey members in order to discover what causes are most meaningful to them, but also offer a wide variety of community service activities, ranging from fundraisers (such as auctions and our pie-bake) to field trips (visits to soup kitchens and senior homes) as well as much more.

Elie Azoff-Slifstein (a sophomore at Hamden Hall Country Day School), our Membership/Kadima VP, would like to reach out more to the B’nai Jacob community, encouraging BEKI USYers to attend services there more frequently, and is planning overnights at current USYers homes to help incoming members and transitioning Kadimaniks feel welcomed into their new USY family.

Noa Shapiro-Franklin (a junior at Amity Regional High School), our Communications VP, sums it all up by saying, “I want to show how amazing our chapter is by increasing membership, doubling event attendance, and ultimately doing the best that we can to win chapter of the year!” After their move from Ohio, we are so excited to welcome Noa and her family (David Franklin, Rona Shapiro—the new rabbi at B’nai Jacob—and Noa’s sister Hallel) into our lives and our community.

As for me, I am thrilled by the excitement and commitment of our board. I think that all of our officers and members share a passion for USY and the way that it brings us together to celebrate our Jewish identity, learn and laugh more, and make the school year special. You’ll be hearing from us a lot over the year—we have already begun to plan our events, meetings, and SA/TO initiatives, and we can’t wait to share it all with you. Please feel free to talk to us anytime, including after services or during our weekly meetings. Though the summer may be over, the opening of a fresh new year of USY means we’re delighted that the school year’s begun.

B’Shalom, Natalie May, 2013-14 BEKI-BJ USY President, Senior at the Jewish High School of Connecticut

Darshanim

Darshan – noun, plural dar·sha·nim. Judaism. a preacher or teacher of Aggada or Halakha in a synagogue.

Rabbi Tilsen has invited the following speakers to serve as guest Darshanim in the coming weeks.

Noah Sobel-Lewin, bar mitzva, will serve as darshan on Shabbat morning Oct. 5, parashat Noah.

Nadav Sela, marking the 60th anniversary of becoming a bar mitzva, will serve as darshan on Shabbat morning Nov. 2, parashat Toldot.

Nanette Stahl will serve as darshanim on Shabbat morning Nov. 16, parashat VaYishlah.

Shabbat Shalom Torah Study

The Shabbat Shalom Torah Study meets every other Saturday morning at 10:45 in the office and is an ideal setting for veteran and novice shul-goers alike to explore the scriptural readings and liturgy of the day in a supportive setting. Expertly led by Steven Fraade, with Rabbi Alan Lovins, Rabbi Murray Levine, Nadav Sela, David Kuperstock, Isaiah Cooper, Rabbi Eric Silver and others, the Shabbat Shalom Torah Study is a nurturing exploration of practice and theory presented in a participatory, non-threatening and multi-generational setting. Many members who take advantage of this unique offering feel a deeper sense of awe born of increased understanding and appreciation of the Torah reading, Haftara (Prophetic reading) and liturgy.

The program often focuses on the scriptural readings, but also addresses the prayer liturgy and other topics related to the liturgical calendar, scriptural readings or current issues of concern.

Everyone is welcome to participate regardless of religious status or background. It is suitable for mature, or at least well-behaved, youth along with adults.

Mondays

Rashi Study Group: Shemuel

New Book: Each Monday morning from 7:45 to 8:30 adults meet in the Library Chapel to read Rashi’s commentary on the Tanakh (Hebrew Bible). The Rashi Study Group (RSG) is now beginning the Book of Shemuel (Samuel). Characters in the narrative include the Prophet Samuel, King Saul and King David, Mikhal, Batsheva, and more. It is possible to join the study group for a single meeting or to begin at any time. Knowledge of Hebrew is not necessary. Rashi purported to explain the peshat of the text, i.e., the meaning in its historical, literary and linguistic context. Visitors and new participants are welcome. Hebrew and English texts are available. The RSG meets immediately following the 7 a.m. shaharit service. With Jon-Jay Tilsen.

Tuesdays

Hebrew (עברית)

New sections may open this season. To register for the next session, contact Peggy at office@beki.org.

Wednesdays

Hebrew Word of the Week

The Wednesday morning service (shaharit) features a 180-second “Hebrew word of the Week” to promote the learning of Hebrew. The Hebrew language is highly structured. Most words are based on three-letter roots, and are made with a limited set of verb or noun forms. By learning a few dozen roots and a small set of word-forms, it is possible to roughly translate Hebrew words isolated from any context, something less often possible in English. The Word of the Week often relates to the weekly scriptural readings, enhancing personal study and public Torah discussion.

Rabbis’ Study Group

Wednesdays with Murray is a weekly study group exclusively for rabbis, facilitated by Rabbi Murray Levine. The Wednesday study group affords local rabbis an opportunity to pursue their own talmud torah (Torah study) in a “safe” setting and with opportunities to learn from each other’s experience and insight. The study group meets Wednesday mornings in the Rosenkrantz Family Library. The group is on summer recess and resumes on Wednesday 9 October. For more information, call Rabbi Murray Levine at (203) 397-2513.

Thursdays

Mini Morning Learning Service

The Thursday morning services are supplemented with commentary and teaching relating to the history, themes, choreography and language of the daily morning service. Shaharit service is from 8:15 to 9:15 on Thursdays; on other weekdays, the service begins at 7 a.m.

Sanhedrin Talmud Study Group

New Time: The Sanhedrin Talmud Study Group meets on Thursdays during the lunch hour (noon to 1). The Group has met weekly since 1999. For some participants, this is their first direct experience with Talmud text; for others, it is a continuation of a long journey. The Group focuses on the issues raised in the Talmud, with less attention to the technical aspects of the text. Knowledge of Hebrew or Aramaic is helpful but not required.

The Talmud, based on an oral text, has no beginning or end. One can begin study at any point; now is the best time. The Sanhedrin Talmud Study Group meets in BEKI’s Rosenkrantz Family Library. For information, contact Isaiah Cooper at his law office icoooper@cooperlaw.net.

The Sanhedrin Study Group is in summer recess and will resume on Thursday Oct. 3 (after the festivals). doctor

BEKI Bulletin September 2013 17
Dear Rabbi

I read that there is a water shortage. In some cities and states, lawns have been outlawed. BEKI should be a leader and remove the lawn.

Signed, Water Watcher

Dear Mayim Mavin,

At BEKI, we don’t water the lawn. Ever. However, if an interested crew wanted to consider alternative landscaping to conserve resources, reduce maintenance cost (lawn service) or effort (volunteers trimming hedges, clearing roof drains), promote biodiversity, cast favorable shade in the summer (without disturbing sidewalks or clogging the roof drains), or enhance beauty, I am sure the Directors would welcome a proposal. Connecticut is blessed with a lot of rainfall, so we probably don’t need a cactus garden, but is better than a bare lot.

Dear Rabbi,

A day without eating is called a “fast” even though it is the slowest of days, and the meal at the end is called a “breakfast” even though it is at night. Using alcohol or marijuana is prohibited on Yom Kippur even though it is one of the “High” Holy Days. What gives?

Signed, Good Humor Guy

Dear Snow Cone,

To make it worse, some people drive on the parkway and then park in the driveway; others come “on foot,” although it is much easier to come on feet. I suggest you take up another language, such as Klingon, that does not have such odd expressions.

Dear Rabbi,

The Torah is clear that we are not supposed to make others work on Shabbat, including non-Jews and [even] beasts of burden. If you mail a letter and it gets delivered on Shabbat, isn’t that a violation of the rules?

Signed, Going Postal

Dear Mr. ZIP,

In general, if you ask a non-Jew to perform a service for you but do so in a way that does not require him or her to perform it on Shabbat, there is no violation of the rules. For example, if you drop off your dry cleaning on Friday and they promise a Tuesday pickup, it is really up to the business owner whether they work on Shabbat or not. They are permitted to work on Shabbat, but you are not permitted to make them do so. However, if you want to be pious about it, bring your laundry in on Monday, or mail your letter on Monday and hope it arrives by Friday (good luck with that). But in the name of piety, I have decided to stop the Postal Service from delivering letters on Shabbat, although it might take me a few months to get it implemented nationally. Anything else you want me to do?

Signed, Dear Rabbi
