Passover at BEKI

Selling of Hametz

During the eight days of Pesah (Passover) it is forbidden for Jews to eat or own edible hametz. Hametz is any product containing wheat, barley, oats, spelt or rye that has not been especially prepared kosher for Pesah. Ideally, one physically disposes of all hametz by the morning before Pesah (the morning of Wednesday 16 April 2003). In order to be sure that this has taken place, or to avoid the loss of expensive hametz such as liquor, one can sell their hametz for the period of Pesah. If you would like to authorize Rabbi Tilsen to sell your hametz on your behalf to someone who is allowed to own it, please sign the form available at each daily morning and evening service beginning at Purim or sign and return the form included in the March synagogue mailing for that purpose. If you need a form faxed to you, leave a message for Mary Ellen Mack at 389-2108 x14 with your fax number or fax her at 389-5899; you can also find a form at www.beki.org/forms.html. The form is a power of attorney allowing Rabbi Tilsen to sell your hametz for you, which he will do in a sale that will be effective at 10:00a on the morning before Pesah.

Pesah Food Questions?

BEKI members and supporters with questions regarding Passover observances are welcome to contact Rabbi Tilsen at 389-2108 x10. Answers to frequently asked questions can also be found at the website of the Kashrut Initiative of the New Haven Area Rabbinical Assembly.

Kulanu - Special Needs Seder

The Sisterhood of Congregation Beth El-Keser Israel, and Kulanu, in conjunction with the Jewish Family Service and Abel Catering, will host the twentieth-first annual Adult Special Needs Model Seder at BEKI on Monday 7 April 2003. Each year the Sisterhood has hosted an enthusiastic group of Jewish adults from the New Haven area with a variety of special needs. Last year, over 65 people participated.

For many, this is their only taste of Passover and one that they relish and look forward to each year. The Torah teaches of four types of children, and the Haggada reminds us that we must tell the story of the Exodus to each son and daughter of Israel in the way that is most meaningful to him or her. Through the efforts of Sisterhood, Kulanu Director Lauren Kempton, the generosity of Abel Catering and the good offices of the Jewish Family Services, the Exodus is reenacted through song, food and story at a table set in the Passover tradition.

If you would like to help, please contact Adele Tyson (Sisterhood), Dr. Lauren Kempton (Kulanu) (389-2108 x33 or lkempton@beki.org), or Jennifer Cohen (JFS).

Kulanu is BEKI’s outreach program for adults with special needs. Kulanu is supported by The David & Lillian Levine Endowment for People with Special Needs at Congregation Beth El-Keser Israel, which is managed by the Jewish Foundation of Greater New Haven.

Bediqat Hametz & Biur Hametz

On the night of Tuesday 15 April 2003 (the night before the first seder), it is customary to perform “Bediqat Hametz,” the final check for leavening before Passover. This procedure can be done as a spiritual or fun ritual with children or adults. The next morning, Wednesday 16 April (the morning...

A Modest Proposal For the Parents of Teenagers

Are you and your teenager too busy with work and school to spend time together?

Does your teen challenge your requests to keep Jewish rituals?

Has your teen resisted attending Shabbat services after the bar or bat mitzvah?

Attend a weekday morning or evening minyan regularly with your teen. You’ll spend time together, you’ll reinforce Jewish rituals, and weekday services usually take only 30-45 minutes.

Teens have ambiguous roles because they feel like adults and have serious responsibilities, yet they still have many of the restrictions of younger children. At shul, however, they “count” as soon as they become bar or bat mitzvah at 12 or 13. What’s more, they know that they are needed and wanted by an adult community that views them as equals.

Some of you may have heard your child say, “Why do I have to learn all these prayers, I’ll never use them after my bar or bat mitzva?” When you both attend minyan, the reason for learning how to daven is self-evident. In addition, if your Hebrew reading skills are rusty, you can slowly improve them in a relaxed environment. Even if you can’t read every word in Hebrew, just your presence is valuable to make up the minyan.

Sometimes you may not feel like going to minyan, but you’ll go because you said you would and would be embarrassed not to. You know that, when dealing with teenagers, actions speak louder and far more forcefully than any lectures. Sometimes your child won’t feel like making the effort, but will do it anyway to demonstrate to you how mature he or she is.

You forge a special bond as both of you struggle to get up for the 7:00 am minyan and drive to shul in silence in the dark of a winter morning. You may both rush to the evening minyan and find that the day’s tensions fall away during the service, allowing your teen to confide in you on the way home. You will feel pride as you both polish your davening skills. You can share the good feeling that comes from supporting one another in performance of a mitzva.

As we all know, the times we share with our children are fleeting. If we are lucky, we have some lovely memories to look back on once the children leave home. Some of those memories are spectacular events like parties, vacations, and achievements. Some memories are built of the steady activities that literally fill our lives—mealtimes, chores, and carpooling.

Attending minyan regularly could become one of the activities that enhance your relationship with your teen, build your family life, and, best of all, create happy family memories.

From 23 February to 2 March I was on a mission to Israel entitled “History and Hope: Building the Jewish People.” Participants included twelve educators all associated with the Department of Jewish Education of the Jewish Federation of Greater New Haven. Each of the seven days was full of speakers, text study and connections to the land of Israel.

I left New Haven with two awesome responsibilities. The first was to deliver the “Kites for Peace” made by BEKI Religious School children. The second was to deliver sympathy cards for the Ramon family. After two days of snow in Jerusalem – one foot of snow – we left for our sister city Afula.

We stopped in the Galil for a visit to the grave of Ilan Ramon. The cemetery was old and very small, lush with green and the pink of the cyclamen and anemones in full bloom. Our group paid their tribute and I read the poem by Hannah Senesh, Yesh Kochavim. I lovingly placed the BEKI Religious School cards in the special bronze box at the grave site. I placed a stone on the fresh dirt at his graveside and mourned the loss of Ramon, the one bright light in the long Israeli winter.

That evening we attended a dinner hosted by Danny Atar, the mayor. We met the eighteen young Israelis who will be visiting the US in March on a Mifgash. I had the distinct pleasure to meet Ori and Rachel Zisling, parents of Ongy Zisling our Israeli Emissary and Yair, his younger brother. I expressed our gratitude from the BEKI community for the teaching by their son Ongy, to our children at BEKI this year and the deepening of our understanding of Israel due to his lessons.

As I reflect on the mission I am most grateful for all that I have learned and can impart to my students. I hold in my heart and my mind’s eye the proud smile of Orgy’s Dad, the square snowmen of Jerusalem, a hill of discarded multicolored Israeli snow boots, the air of the Jordan valley, the lights of the Citadel in the snow, the checkerboard fields of the Gilboa, the laughter and tears of our group, and a rainbow that has colored my soul and increased the depth of my love and the strength of my faith to Israel.

Passover at BEKI

Before the first seder, it is customary to perform “Biur Hametz,” a final “search and destroy” mission for leavening, to insure compliance with the rule against possessing or eating hametz during the festival. Instructions for Bediqat Hametz and Biur Hametz can be found in most Hagadot, including the Rabbinical Assembly’s Passover Haggadah: The Feast of Freedom.

Siyyum Bekhorot

The Fast of the First Born is Wednesday 16 April 2003 beginning at dawn. Firstborn who attend the Wednesday morning service at 7:00a may conclude their fast by partaking of the seudat mitzva (obligatory feast) celebrating a siyyum, the conclusion of a study project. Edward Abramovitz has been studying tractate Moed Qatan and will share a brief lesson from this rabbinic text. Services and siyyum will end by 8:00a. All may attend. That time will also be close to the last opportunity to authorize Rabbi Tilsen to sell your hametz (see “Selling of Hametz” in this issue).

Let All Who Are Hungry...

The Seder of Pesah is a wonderful opportunity to welcome others into our homes. Our congregation comprises many people who may not have extended family locally, do not have Jewish relatives, are new to the area, or who otherwise would benefit greatly from a seder invitation. If you are able to open your Seder to additional guests, please contact Rabbi Tilsen at your earliest opportunity at 389-2108 x10 (jjtilsen@beki.org). If you are able to host an adult who is a mental health services consumer or who has developmental disabilities, please contact Education Director Dr. Lauren Kempton (389-2108 x33 or lkempton@beki.org).

Service & No Service Schedule for Pesah

Please note that there is no evening service at BEKI on the first and second nights of Pesah. Festival morning services begin at 9:15a.

For a complete listing, see the calendar page in this issue or our website at www.beki.org/schedule.html.

Conservative Community Second Seder

This year’s Conservative Community Second Seder is hosted by Congregation Or Shalom in Orange. For information or reservations call 799-2341.

Shir HaShirim Song of Songs

The Biblical love poetry of Shir HaShirim - Song of Songs will be read on the morning of 19 April 2003 during the Shabbat Pesah service. Tradition ascribes the book to King Solomon himself, writing 2,900 years ago. Celebrate the spring holiday of Pesah with this beautiful and moving reading.

Yizkor Memorial Service

The Yizkor Memorial Service will be held during the 9:15a Festival morning service on Thursday 24 April 2003. The Festival service includes a Shaharit morning service, Hallel (Psalms of praise), a Torah reading and Haftara, and the Musaf additional service, and concludes by noon. The Yizkor memorial service is one of four such services during the year that help us recognize our feelings of loss, which are often especially intense during the Pesah season, and to honor the memories of our loved ones.
From Pesah to Shavuot

Sefira – Counting the Omer

At the second seder (Thursday 17 April), we began daily sefarat ha-omer (counting of the omer), a counting of days to Shavuot, the next major festival. The counting, preferably done each night for 49 nights, is an expression of eager anticipation, commemorating the period of expectation and preparation we experienced in the Exodus from Egypt until the revelation at Sinai.

The simple home ceremony is printed in most siddurim (prayer books), including Sim Shalom, immediately after the weekday evening service. While it is a mitzva prescribed for adults, sefarat ha-omer can also be a fun, artistic and joyous ritual for families with children.

In the days before printed calendars, calendar watches and daily newspapers, the sefira served to keep the liturgical calendar of the Jewish People synchronized, no simple accomplishment given dispersion and isolation of much of the community. The term omer refers to the measure (one handful) of grain that was used to create a physical relic of the counting. With a physical reminder, even illiterate people could do a recount in case they forgot the day’s number.

Families with young children may use this opportunity to help their children understand and experience anticipation, planning, counting and hope.

Teach us to number our days, that we may attain a heart of wisdom
– Psalm 90:12

Yom HaShoa – Holocaust Memorial Day

Yom HaShoa will be on Monday night 28 April and Tuesday 29 April 2003. This day will be recognized at BEKI in the liturgy at morning services and will be explored in the Religious School. Some in our community observe Tuesday as a fast day.

BEKI Religious School

April finds the teachers and students of BEKI Religious School deeply engaged in preparation for Passover. Our goal is to make each child comfortable with learning a piece of the Seder liturgy. A Model Seder was scheduled for 6 April, conducted entirely by the students. For 30 April we plan a service for Yom Hashoah. Six memorial candles will be lit. The Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh graders prepared readings from Hannah Senesh, the Kovno Ghetto, Emanuel Ringelblum, and Olga Lengyel.

The BEKI Religious School is attempting to help fulfill the dream of Ilan Ramon to see “13 or 14 million new trees planted in Israel exactly one year from the anniversary of the launch.” If you would like to join us in this endeavor the cost of a tree is $18.00. You may contact Lauren Kempton at the BEKI office.

Ben Karsif and Jessie Karsif are graduates of our religious school. Both have returned to the school in an attempt to provide its current students with the same enriching and versatile Jewish learning experience that they had received. This is Jessie’s third year as an employee, assisting Guy Lord in his Fifth Grade class, as well as general office work. She is in her sophomore year in High School in the Community (HSC), and is also enrolled in the Educational Center for the Arts (ECA). Ben is enjoying his second year on faculty, holding down the fort in the office as the resident master of technical stuff and general office person. He is a senior at HSC, and will be leaving us for college next year, although he has not yet decided where to go.

Standard Time resumes on Sunday 6 April 2003. Be sure to turn your clocks ahead one hour before going to bed Motse’ei Shabbat (Saturday night). If your clock read 10:00p, set it to 11:00p.

Shabbat afternoon services on 26 April will begin at 7:30p.

No afternoon and evening services are held at BEKI on the nights of the first and second seder.

Benei Mitzva in April

Molly Sapadin, daughter of Helene Sapadin, will lead and participate in the Minha-Maariv-Havdala services as a bat mitzva on Shabbat afternoon 5 April beginning at 5:45p. Molly is a student in our Benei Mitzva Preparation Program.

Joseph Schottenfeld, son of Richard Schottenfeld and Tanina Rostain, will lead and participate in services as a bar mitzva on Shabbat morning 12 April. Joseph is a student in our Benei Mitzva Preparation Program.

Michelle Cyr, daughter of Liann & Paul Cyr and of Jim Hopkinson, and granddaughter of Adele Tyson, will lead and participate in services on Shabbat afternoon 26 April beginning at 7:30p (note the special time). Michelle is a student in our Benei Mitzva Preparation Program.

BEKI Recycles

Please place plastic cups and plasticware in the “plastics recycling” bin next to the trash barrel following qiddush and other events. Please keep trash and recyclables separate.
Order Etz Hayim

Etz Hayim Humash: Copies of the new Etz Hayim Humash may be ordered from the BEKI office or Sisterhood Giftshop for the special price of $65 each for a limited time only. The regular retail price is $75.

Volunteer Needed

Would you like a morning or afternoon of sparkling and witty conversation? Would you like to share your favorite CD or tape with a select group of music lovers? Would you like to help BEKI disseminate important and timely programmatic information?

Curious..... Call Saul Bell.

Saul’s Circle

Chapel Haven and Fellowship Place were both invited to participate in the Tile Project sponsored by the New Haven Festival of Arts and Ideas. Thanks to a wonderful contact of Sharon Lovett-Graff, Saul’s Circle participants worked with Meg Bloom, the Artist in Residence for the New Haven Festival of Arts and Ideas. The groups created tiles for a wall that will grace the Mitchell Library garden. The theme of the project is “There Are No Disposable People.”

Friendly Face?

If you might like to serve as a “Greeter” on a Shabbat or Festival morning, to welcome guests, direct visitors, and assist those with special needs, please contact Ritual Committee Chairperson Steven Fraade at 397-9430 or steven.fraade@yale.edu, or Rabbi Tilsen at 389-2108 x10 or jjtlsen@beki.org.
Children’s Shabbat Havura

The Children’s Shabbat Havura meets every Shabbat morning at 10:45a in the Claire Goodwin Youth Room. Designed to address the spiritual and social needs of preschool children, the Havura meets concurrently with K-2 Kehila, Junior Congregation, Cosmic Conversations, the Shabbat Shalom Learners’ Minyan and the main Sabbath service. Following the half-hour of songs, stories, prayers and dance, the children have their own qiddush refreshments and then enjoy supervised play until they join the adult worship for the Concluding Service and qiddush.

The Havura enjoys strong support from parents and the Synagogue. Currently about 70 children and their parents actively participate in the Havura. Visitors have come from across New England to observe this program as a model for their own synagogues.

Meeting the spiritual and social needs of preschool children is an obligation of the Jewish community and an important part of the Synagogue’s mission. The Havura (Friendship Circle) links the children to one another, to other concerned Jewish parents, and to the Synagogue. The Havura enjoys the active participation of parents who themselves are enriched by the experience. For many adults, the Children’s Shabbat Havura serves as their introduction to active participation in the Synagogue Community.

If you are interested in learning more about the BEKI Children’s Shabbat Havura, come any Shabbat (Saturday) morning at 10:45a and see for yourself. Or contact Miriam Benson at 389-6137 or mirbenson@aol.com, who, along with Ellen Cohen, coordinates the program. You can also contact Education Director Dr. Lauren Kempton at 389-2108 x33 or lkempton@beki.org, the staff person who supports this parent cooperative.
Darshanit in April

Education Director Dr. Lauren Kempton will serve as darshanit on Shabbat morning 26 April 2003. This Shabbat immediately precedes Yom HaShoa, Holocaust Memorial Day.

Mishna Pesahim

Why is this night different from all other nights? Rabbi Colin Brodie will present a study of the underpinnings of the Seder from Mishna Pesahim. This class is presented by the DJE of the JFGNH. It meets in the BEKI Library on Sunday 5 April 2003 following services. For information contact Rabbi Colin Brodie at (203) 387-2424 x328.

Reading Torah at BEKI

Thanks to Paula Hyman for coordinating Torah readings for the book of Bereishit (Genesis) and to Marsha Beller for coordinating the Torah readings for Shemot (Exodus). Rabbi Tilsen is coordinating the readings for VaYiqra (Leviticus). If you would like to read Torah, or learn how to read Torah, call Rabbi Jon-Jay at (203) 389-2108 x10 (jjtilsen@beki.org) or Darryl Kuperstock at (203) 387-0304 (kuperst@aol.com).

Rashi Study Group

Each Monday morning from 7:45a to 8:30a adults meets in the Rosenkrantz Family Library to read Rashi’s commentary on the Torah. It is possible to participate for a single meeting or to begin at any time. Knowledge of Hebrew is not necessary. Rashi purported to explain the peshat of the Biblical text, i.e., the meaning in its historical, literary and linguistic context. Visitors and new participants are welcome. The Rashi Study Group has been meeting weekly since 1994.

AA Meeting

A Thursday night AA meeting is held at BEKI on Thursday nights at 8:00p. The weekly Meeting has been held at BEKI since May 1997. Open to any person who can benefit from a recovery program, the meeting is held according to standard AA procedure. This is not a specifically Jewish recovery group, although a large proportion of participants are Jewish. For information on the weekly meeting call Jay at (203) 387-6019. AA will not meet on the two Thursdays of Pesah.

Shabbat Shalom Learners’ Minyan

The “Shabbat Shalom Learners’ Minyan,” which meets every other Saturday morning at 10:45a in BEKI’s Rosenkrantz Family Library, is an ideal setting for veteran and novice shul-goers alike to become more comfortable and expert in the Shaharit (morning) and Torah services in a supportive setting. Lead by Steven Fraade and Rabbi Alan Lovins, the Shabbat Shalom Learners’ Minyan has helped many feel a deeper sense of awe born of greater understanding while increasing the level of comfort through nurturing step-by-step practice in a non-threatening multi-generational setting.
Why We Belong to USCJ

A small portion of the membership dues paid to BEKI—$45 per family or individual—supports our participation in the United Synagogues of Conservative Judaism (USCJ), a national organization whose regional director is our congregant Miriam Benson, wife of Rabbi Jon-Jay Tilsen.

BEKI receives many benefits of USCJ membership. USCJ coordinates services that would be too expensive or complicated for individual congregations to sustain, but when many communities pool their resources, these services become feasible.

Here are some specifics. USCJ hosts BEKI’s Web site (http://www.beki.org). It coordinates regional and national programs for Kadima and USY youth groups. When our officers—who are volunteers with jobs of their own—have questions about the running of the synagogue, they turn to PALS (Program for Assistance by Liaisons to Synagogues), which offers pro bono consultation with experienced professionals.

Religious schools need strong educators and USCJ provides the high-quality training that prepares them. Dr. Lauren Kempton, education director and principal of BEKI Religious School, attended the United Synagogue New Director’s Institute and states, “The Institute was invaluable for my work this year. I received an incredible manual full of programmatic ideas and organizational tips. Through Serene Victor, I am connected with other leaders here in the East for planning and sharing of ideas. As I learned at the Institute and daily reaffirm at BEKI: Judaism well taught is its own best advocate.”

Our religious school teachers are enrolled in a two-year regional program coordinated by Serene Victor, the USCJ consultant for synagogue education.

Darryl Kuperstock represented BEKI at the biennial convention last year, where five pillars of Conservative Judaism came together: the USCJ, the Rabbinical Assembly, the Jewish Theological Seminary, and Women’s League. There are Internet discussion groups for synagogue presidents, webmasters, educators, and financial officers who network, brainstorm, and learn from one another on line.

All BEKI members are subscribed to the award-winning magazine, “The United Synagogue Review,” and all are welcome at the Conservative movement’s informal embassy in Jerusalem, the Fuchsberg Center.

“Perhaps most important of all is the intangible, yet very real benefit which derives from being part of a large and dynamic movement,” says Miriam. “Through USCJ affiliation, a synagogue can gain the inspiration and motivation that keep a congregation flourishing.”

Part of USCJ dues is directed toward building the Conservative-Masorti Movement in Israel and Eastern Europe. The knowledge that we are helping our Movement grow should be a source of pride and satisfaction for every BEKI member.

“I absolutely do not want to suggest anything,” adds Rabbi Tilsen, “but USCJ membership allows a synagogue to be part of the Rabbinical Placement service. This means that only an affiliated congregation is eligible to engage a rabbi who is a member of the Rabbinical Assembly. I would always urge a congregation searching for a rabbi to hire only one who is a member of the Rabbinical Assembly. I would always urge a congregation searching for a rabbi to hire only one who is a member of the Rabbinical Assembly or another legitimate rabbinic association. Anyone can use the title ‘rabbi,’ so a congregation must have a rabbi with credentials and an organization’s endorsement. BEKI’s membership in USCJ allows me as a Rabbinical Assembly member to work here.”
