

MARCH 28 SHABBAT SHMOOZE

Celebrating the Opening of the
BEKI LIBRARY HAGGADOT EXHIBIT

IN EVERY GENERATION: HAGGADOT AT BEKI AND BEYOND

Do you know how many countries, centuries and languages are represented in the BEKI haggadot?

Do you know why some medieval haggadot have an illustration of a hunter chasing a hare?

Do you know when Had Gadya was first added to the haggadah?

Come to the Shabbat shmooze and find out!

Julie Cohen, an acquisitions assistant in Judaica at the Yale University Library and a graduate student in library science at SCSU, is doing an internship this semester in the BEKI Library. On March 28 Julie will give a talk bringing to light little known facts about haggadot through history.
