

Third Annual Elm City Kallah: A Weekend of Jewish Learning October 27-29, 2017

with Scholar-in-Residence

Noam Zion

Author of *A Different Night:
The Family Participation Haggadah*
and Senior Research Fellow at the Shalom Hartman Institute in Jerusalem

Friday night, October 27th at Westville Synagogue

- 5:35pm Kabbalat Shabbat
- 6:35pm Shabbat Dinner
- 7:45pm Speaker, followed by dessert

Family Conflict in the Book of Genesis —

Firstborn: Plague or Privilege? Birth Order and

Parental Expectations in Cain and Abel, from Rashi to Springsteen

Dinner $25 per person • RSVP 203.389.9513 by October 23rd • office@westvilleshul.org

Saturday, October 28th at BEKI

- 9:15am Services, followed by Kiddush lunch
- 1:00pm Family Conflict in the Book of Genesis —
Sarah, Hagar and Abraham: A Troubling Family Triangle

Sunday, October 29th at Congregation B'nai Jacob

- 9:00am Services and light breakfast
- 10:00am A Tale of Two Cities —
Washington, DC and Jerusalem: Capitals Which Unite or Divide Us?

Excluding Shabbat dinner, all events are free and open to the public.
Sponsored by Westville Synagogue, BEKI, and Congregation B'nai Jacob.
Special funding from the James M. Shure Educational Fund.

Bringing the New Haven Jewish Community Together!