THE MAN WHO LOVED HIS WIFE JENNIFER ANNE MOSES

Jennifer Anne Moses is an author and a painter. She has written seven books of fiction and non-fiction, including her most recent publication, The Man Who Loved His Wife, a book of short stories. In her own words, “according to Google I am a multi genre writer - but it’s more than a matter of genre. I internalize different worlds and voices, and eventually it all bubbles up into my work.”

Moses describes The Man Who Loved His Wife “as the result of my deep dive into Yiddish literature and my love of the Hebrew language. Jews being Jews: that’s what its subject is. As I was writing it, I felt like I was downloading from the Yiddish greats.”
