Purim Festivities This Month

Order Your Purim Bags

Be sure to reply about Shalach Manot by Wednesday, March 13. The order form is here at the website. You can pay by check or by credit card to send greetings to a few friends or to the entire congregation.

Every member family may pick up a bag, but even if you don’t pick one up, you’ll receive your Purim e-card with your donor list. Bags can be picked up after the Megillah readings Saturday, March 23 and Sunday, March 24 or by arrangement with the office later that week.

This year, by popular demand, we will include bigger hamantaschen and more goodies. Every item in the bag has proper hechsher, but we also will post those specifics on the BEKI website.

Silly Hat Day March 2

We’ll begin our Adar celebration on Saturday, March 2. Adults and children are encouraged to wear silly hats as a warmup to Purim.

New Purim Books

Thanks to a generous congregant, we have purchased engaging new Megillat Esther books, called The New Venice Esther. The Hebrew and English type is clearer than in our Five Megilloth books, and original art by Tilla Crowne, Sophie Herxheimer, Mirta Kupfermine, and Jacqueline Nicholls illustrates the text. The artists were inspired by the city of Venice and its venerable gambling culture.

Purim Festivities March 23 & 24

We will read the Book of Esther Saturday evening March 23 and Sunday morning March 24. Adults as well as children are encouraged to come in costume!

Purim bags will be distributed after both services. Please bring your donation to our 9-item food drive; details on page 5.

On Saturday evening, we’ll start Maariv and Megillah reading at 8:30 pm (after Shabbat ends).

On Sunday morning, Purim Day, Shaharit and Megillah reading will start at 9 am. Parents are encouraged to arrive around 9:30 am to sit with children for the Megillah reading. The children’s Purim Carnival will start at 10:30 am.

Everyone is invited to the Purim Seudah lunch on Sunday from 11 am to 12 noon.

On Sunday evening, the service will be at the usual 5:45 pm.

Living Your Best Third Act

“Life  Love  and Legacy: Conversations About Living Your Best Third Act” is an opportunity for BEKI members to discuss what some people call the "third act" of life.

With the help of Nathalie Bonafé, PhD, a certified end of life counselor, we will explore living well until the end of our days, and how to talk about this among ourselves and with our loved ones.

Natalie will help participants create a safe space to discuss these difficult topics surrounding the end of life. We will go beyond the topics of wills and advanced directives to help one another, in community, to explore our fears, hopes, and desires for living well as we age.

This is a 2-part program, Thursdays March 28 and April 4 from 7 to 8:30 pm, in the George G. Posener Daily Chapel. The cost is $10 per person for both sessions. RSVP to Peggy at office@BEKI.org. For more information, consult shoshanazax@gmail.com.

Can You Provide a Meal?

BEKI has a long tradition of providing meals to families who have welcomed a child. You can prepare and deliver the dinner or arrange delivery from a restaurant.

Anything you need to know about preferences or address is provided at the platform called Lotsa Helping Hands. Just log in and choose your password. When the calendar is set up for meals, you’ll receive an email with a link.

Please register so you can assist with this project.

BEKI Membership Directory
All members should have received an email on Feb. 14 with a link to our latest BEKI Membership Directory: https://www.beki.org/our-community/beki-directory. In that email you also received a passcode to access it. The Directory is “word searchable” so that you can quickly find a phone number or email address.

Be a BEKI Promoter
In 2023 The New York Times listed New Haven as one of the top 52 places to visit. It’s also a great place to live. New Haven was described as a “historic, mostly walkable and bikeable seaside town with distinctive neighborhoods, an encyclopedic collection of great American architecture, a thriving cultural life and one of the best food scenes in the country for a city of its size.”

Cosmopolitan recently described New Haven as a “cultural hotspot.” The subhead of the article is “The food and cocktails? Top tier. The museums? Immaculate. The people? Gorge and diverse.”

Do you know someone who might want to move here? Let’s all be BEKI membership advocates.

Calling All BEKI Musicians!
We’re organizing a concert with BEKI musicians—vocal or instrumental—on Sunday June 23, probably starting at 4:30 pm. We’ll have free admission, open to family and friends too. After all of the performances, we’ll pass the hat for donations to JCARR, our local Jewish Community Alliance for Refugee Resettlement. Are you interested in participating? If so, email us at president@beki.org.

Another Security Grant Awarded
BEKI has received another $10,000 security grant from the Jewish Foundation of Greater New Haven in memory of Arthur and Yvette Eder. This grant will help pay for our increased hours of security guards.

Last year’s Foundation grant allowed us to improve the lighting outside our parking lot door and install hideaway lockdown window shades for our inside doors. All of these upgrades were recommended by our security consultants.

According to Michael Masters, National Director & CEO of the Secure Community Network, there was a dramatic increase in threat incidents and suspicious activity reports by Jewish institutions in 2023 — more than doubling 2022’s total. Between October 7 and the end of the year, there were more threat incident and suspicious activity reports than in all of 2022.

In the months ahead, BEKI will continue to make upgrades to our security technology, using federal grant money.

If you have questions about BEKI’s security projects, please consult Safety & Security Chair Jay Sokolow.

JCARR Update

We are elated that our Jewish Community Alliance for Refugee Resettlement [JCARR]’s Family 3 has been granted U.S. Citizenship.

Our volunteers continue to be amazed how quickly Family 9 is settling into life in New Haven. JCARR’s employment task force is working with the father, who has full and legal work authorization in the United States. He has training as a mechanic and experience as a professional driver and well-driller. He is responsible, hard-working, detail-oriented, and a quick learner. Please email Daphne Geismar at daphne.geismar@gmail.com if you have contacts for employment that might be a good fit.

Please go to this site, which is updated regularly, to see what additional needs have been posted for Family 9.

If you are willing to drive the new family, or volunteer in other ways, please email BEKI’s liaison to JCARR Jennifer Mellon at jnmellon@hotmail.com.

9 Items Food Drive

From March 1 through Purim Day, March 24, we are collecting these 9 items that are particularly needed in the CCA food pantry:
- Rice (1 to 2 pound bag)
- Cereal
- Peanut butter
- Jelly
- Pasta
- Pasta sauce
- Shelf-stable milk
- Shelf-stable juice
- Canned fruit

Please note that this is not a general “clear the cupboards” drive. That one will be a week before Passover, on Sunday, April 14. 578432024

Matanot L’Evyonim

Please note that on the Shalach Manot (Purim Bag) form, you can also arrange matanot l’evyonim, donations to those in need, which will be distributed by Rabbi Woodward through his Tzedakah Fund.

Fair Trade Passover Chocolate

Fair trade chocolate chips and bars that are Kosher for Passover will again be offered at wholesale pricing through BEKI. We provide these products from Equal Exchange since fair trade chocolate never is available in local Passover supermarket displays. Stay tuned for the early April “order by” date and pricing. For more information contact Becky May at bseashoremay@aol.com.
Keith Richter: Nature Photography Exhibition

The nature photographs of BEKI member Keith Richter are featured in our upstairs gallery through May 26.

Keith’s photography is a blend of his two passions: abstract art and nature. Living in New Haven, Keith has the opportunity to explore the surrounding woods, lakes, and rivers, and he often takes his trusty digital camera with him on these excursions.

His process incorporates a deep appreciation for the natural world, using his camera lens as the means to a stronger connection with what he sees in nature. He seeks to capture the ways in which abstract art mimics nature through shapes, colors, and patterns.

Keith has found a supportive community at the Creative Arts Workshop, where he studies with photographer Phyllis Crowley. He credits his classmates with encouraging him to explore new directions in his work.

Over the past 8 years, he has actively participated in various group shows with his classmates, showcasing his work in a variety of venues, including the Mitchell Library, the Lawn Club, Fairhaven Furniture, and the CAW gallery.

Keith will be available to discuss his photographs after services and Kiddush lunch on Saturday, March 9.

Scholarship Opportunities

BEKI Funds for Summer Programs

We have various BEKI funds that can provide some help for Camp Ramah or Israel trips for BEKI children. Please consult Rabbi Eric for details.

Day Camp Scholarship

This summer BEKI is again hosting the Elm Shakespeare Players Camp in our downstairs space.

BEKI families may sign up here. As a benefit of our partnership with the Camp, two full scholarships will be provided for BEKI youth ages 7 to 12 in each ten-day session.

The program runs weekdays July 8-19 and July 22-August 2, 9 am-3pm, with aftercare (if there’s sufficient interest, but not included in the scholarship). If you would like a BEKI scholarship, just call or email Peggy at the BEKI office; you will pay only the small registration fee.

Jewish Camp Scholarships

The website “One Happy Camper” helps families explore a variety of traditional and specialty Jewish day and overnight camps. Some camps offer need-based financial assistance, and parents are encouraged to inquire about the level of assistance available. In addition, the Jewish Foundation of Greater New Haven offers needs-blind incentive grants of up to $1,000 for first time campers as well as needs-based scholarships for all campers; applications are due by June 10.

Lilly Reiser College Scholarship

The Lilly Reiser Scholarship, which will provide $10,000 college scholarships per year for nine Jewish students from Connecticut and New York, is managed by the United Jewish Federation of Stamford, New Canaan, and Darien. Awards will be based on a combination of both need and merit. Applications will be accepted until March 15.

College Scholarships

Three college scholarship programs—one of them needs-blind—are available through the Jewish Foundation of Greater New Haven. The deadline for all of them is May 31.

Scholarships for Israel Trips

The Jewish Foundation of Greater New Haven provides Israel Experience scholarships for Teens and Young Adults. Applications for summer trips are due by April 5.

USY is offering a variety of EPIC Israel trips this summer. All participants are eligible for a RootOne Voucher subsidy in the amount of $3,000, a gift of the Marcus Foundation.

7th Graders Volunteer at the Food Pantry

BY ANNIE NORMAN-SCHIFF  EDUCATION DIRECTOR

Calling all 7th graders for a special opportunity to volunteer at the Jewish Family Service Food Pantry on Whalley Avenue in New Haven on Sunday, April 7 at 9 am. Teens will help stock and organize the food pantry so that it is a clean and dignified place for clients to choose their groceries.

This volunteering event is a chance to build relationships between teens who are preparing to become b’mitzvah at BEKI in the coming year. All BEKI 7th graders, including but not limited to BINA religious school graduates and Ezra Academy students, are invited to join us.

Contact Libby Abraham at libby.p.abraham@gmail.com to RSVP and for more information.

Spotlight on a BINA Madricha: Klara Oppenheimer

At BINA, our students learn not just from their teachers but also from madrichim: teen aides who assist in the classroom and serve as role models.

Klara Oppenheimer does this and more as the madricha in Morah Sharon's 3rd and 4th grade class. She has worked with the same group of students for two years.

A valued helper during music and Judaics lessons, Klara also teaches Hebrew in small groups to students who need individualized attention.

Klara is an 8th grade student at Engineering and Science University Magnet School (ESUMS) in West Haven.

She is involved at BEKI in many ways including leading children’s services and participating in the Teen Kesher Jewish learning program.

She also enjoys reading, writing, and theater directing.

If you know a teen who enjoys younger children and being Jewish, there are still opportunities to get involved at BINA this spring. Teen madrichim help in classrooms on Sunday mornings, Wednesday afternoons, or both, and can choose either to be paid or to earn volunteer hours. Contact Annie Norman-Schiff at anormanschiff@beki.org.

“What will your Jewish legacy be?” is the question we ask each month in a bulletin ad.

In February, we enjoyed a special Shabbat celebration in honor of our legacy donors. Our honorees have added to our endowment funds during their lifetimes or arranged to leave $1,000 or more to BEKI in their estates (through a will or trust, or as a beneficiary designation through a retirement account or life insurance policy).

If you would like your name on the poster in the lobby, please contact our Finance Chair, Attorney Donna Levine, at sdsij@aol.com or 203.668.6473. She would be happy to assist you, free of charge, and very simply.

Those who have pledged a gift of $10,000 or more can create a named fund, and those who give a legacy gift of less have their contribution added to our Legacy L’Chayim Fund at the Jewish Foundation.

BEKI is about to receive an annual distribution of almost $175,000 from our endowment funds at the Jewish Foundation, representing a 4% annual payout from our endowments and approximately 20% of BEKI’s annual budget. We also receive $5,000 annually from endowments held by the Community Foundation for Greater New Haven.

With the help of these funds, we’re able to balance our budget. Even though we are prudent with respect to our expenditures, and operate to a great extent with the assistance of many, many volunteers, we still need to look to our members and donors to meet our obligations annually.

9 Digit Prize Code

Within an article in this bulletin, there’s a 9 digit Prize Code. If you are one of the first five people to find it and email it to bulletin@beki.org, you will win a BEKI coffee mug. Our February winner was Shoshana Lash.

Finding Joy in Adar

Does anyone feel that it might be nice to double up on joy this spring?

This year, it is a Jewish calendrical “leap year.” Called a “shanah me-uberet” (literally a pregnant year), this year has an additional month added in the winter — right now, to be exact — in order to ensure that Passover does not occur too early.

The Torah tells us that Passover happens in the spring (it is called “Chag HeAviv,” the festival of spring), so the lunar calendar is adjusted to ensure that Passover does not stray from its appointed season. This is why the Jewish calendar is described as lunisolar, rather than lunar.

The extra month is called Adar Rishon — First Adar. Normally, Adar holds the month of Purim. Purim has to occur four weeks before Passover. So the extra Adar month — the “leap month” — is added in before Adar, and is called Adar Rishon, first Adar. I find it interesting that the “real” Adar is the second, and not the first, one.

In any case, this creates some funny things in the calendar.

First, the 15th day of Adar Rishon — which would ordinarily be Purim — is celebrated as Purim Katan, mini-Purim. There isn’t anything special about that day, but have a hamantasch or wear a goofy hat.

More than this, we are told in the Talmud that “when Adar begins, we increase joy.” This year, we are supposed to have two months of “increasing joy” — two months of celebration.

I think we need this, to be honest. Things haven’t been easy since Oct. 7 (and they were no picnic before then), and there is something to be said about forcing ourselves to feel more joy and celebration. To set aside energy for these purposes.

This year, as you prepare for Purim, pay special attention to how you can find joy this Adar I and Adar II. Try to feel a sense of celebration, and go into Purim, March 23, full of zest and energy.

Advertise in the Bulletin
Would you like your ad here in the coming year? Each month, the BEKI bulletin reaches over 700 households, most of them in the New Haven area. Check with Peggy in the BEKI office about our variety of ad rates.

Join BEKI on Facebook
Everyone is encouraged to join the BEKI Facebook group. You’ll enjoy the humor, community information, and links to cultural opportunities. You’ll want to choose the private group with the stained-glass window image. Just ask to join. (The BEKI page with the hamsa is the public-facing page, which has few postings).

E-Statements
Due to rising costs and BEKI’s efforts to be more Earth-friendly, we have transitioned to e-statements and e-yahrzeits. If you prefer to receive them by paper, please contact the BEKI office at office@beki.org or 203-389-2108 x114. The BEKI Green Team supports BEKI’s movement toward paperless communications and hopes the community will also.

Easy Fundraiser
The Stop & Shop gift cards sold by the BEKI office are debit cards for groceries or gasoline. This is an ongoing fundraiser that doesn’t cost you nothing. Contact Peggy at office@beki.org to arrange pickup.

Services
All services are also available on Zoom except Friday night and Saturday morning.

Sunday 9 am   Wednesday 7 am
Sunday 5:45 pm  Wednesday 5:45 pm
Monday 7 am   Thursday 8:15 am
Monday 5:45 pm  Thursday 5:45 pm
Tuesday 7 am   Friday 7 am
Tuesday 5:45 pm  Friday 6 pm
Saturday 9:15 am
