HOLY DAYS & PROGRAMS

Operation Isaiah

As in previous years, BEKI is collecting non-perishable food items for the Jewish Family Services Food Pantry.

If you don't want to schlep your bag to BEKI, another option is to provide cash, and BEKI will purchase grocery gift cards for the Pantry.

You may send a check to the BEKI office tagged for Operation Isaiah or ask Peggy to bill your BEKI account. The drive will extend through Sukkot.

Yom Kippur Services

Study Sessions

As is our tradition, BEKI members will lead two study sessions on Yom Kippur afternoon.

Tani Cohen-Fraade, who will lead the first session at 3 pm, is the Director of Alumni Engagement and Activation at Pardes Institute of Jewish Studies. He has a B.A. in religious studies and history from Muhlenberg College and a Master of Jewish Education from Hebrew College.

Tani Cohen-Fraade

Ra'an'an Boustan, who will lead the second session at 4 pm, is Associate Professor of Jewish Studies at Yale Divinity School. He has a B.A. in Classics from Brown University and a Ph.D. in Religions of the Ancient Mediterranean from Princeton University.

Ra'an'an Boustan

Break the Fast

Following Havdalah on Yom Kippur, members and all who have pre-arranged to join us for the High Holy Days are invited to break the fast communally in the downstairs social hall, starting at 7:20 pm.

Our New BEKI Sukkah

A new sukkah, which is about twice the size of our old sukkah, has been donated to BEKI by Jay Sokolow and Ina Silverman.

This easy-to-assemble sukkah kit is in memory of Jay's mother, Marsha Landsberg, and in memory of Moishe Schnitman, a long-time congregant to whom the previous sukkah was dedicated.

Sukkah Hop

The congregation is invited to hop till you drop at our annual Sukkah Hop. This progressive party will be on the first day of Sukkot, Tuesday, Oct. 7.

We'll depart from the BEKI courtyard at 12 noon, after festival services, with the last visit ending around 3 pm.

We'll progress from sukkah to sukkah through the lower Westville neighborhood, with each host family sharing their sukkah and some refreshments with our community. Pick up the detailed Sukkah Hop schedule and map that day at BEKI.

BEKI Apizza

Our annual pizza party in the sukkah will be Sunday Oct. 12 at noon, after religious school. Join us in the BEKI courtyard sukkah for a vegetarian pizza lunch prepared by BEKI chefs.

The menu also includes salad, beverages, and dessert. If you request them, non-dairy and gluten free pies will be available. Bring your own beer or kosher wine.

Reservations to office@beki.org or via this link are due by Thursday, Oct. 9: $10/adults, $5/child under 12, $30/household. In case of rain, the event will move inside.

Email shoshanazax@gmail.com if you can help.

Woodwind Concert Oct. 26

Elm City Winds, a woodwind quintet that performs both classical and popular music, will return to BEKI for an indoor concert on Sunday, Oct. 26 at 4:30 pm. Jennifer Silva, flute; Caesar Storlazzi, oboe; Melanie Lahti, clarinet; Adrienne Gallagher, bassoon; and Emily Fine, French horn, will present a concert entitled "Autumn Serenade."

This program will include a variety of classical and popular music as well as introductions to the pieces, giving historical and musical context to the works they have selected.

Admission is free. Donations will be accepted to support World Central Kitchen, a nonprofit organization founded by Chef José Andres, which provides fresh, nourishing meals to communities in need during humanitarian crises and natural disaster.

Everyone is invited to stay after the concert for 5:45 pm minyan.

Elm City Winds will return to BEKI for a concert on Sunday, Oct. 26.

Can You Provide a Meal?

BEKI has a long tradition of providing meals to families who have welcomed a child. You can prepare and deliver the dinner or arrange delivery from a restaurant. Anything you need to know about preferences or address is provided at the platform called Lotsa Helping Hands. Just log in and choose your password. When the calendar is set up for meals, you'll receive an email with a link. If you have questions, consult rachel.d.greenberg@gmail.com.

Welcome New Members

We want to introduce you to the people who have joined recently.

Here is the next installment of introductions, written by our members themselves. Expect more in the November issue.

Printouts of all of these photos and bios from the bulletin are posted on bulletin boards near the Goodwin Youth Room.

Isadore & Patti Huss

Patti and I are both recently retired. We are both attorneys who practiced in New York City and raised our daughters, Blaine and Alex, in New Rochelle (Westchester County). We are relocating to Beacon Falls (Chatfield Farms) to be near our grandchildren Avery and Cameron, and older daughter Blaine, who is working at Yale. Patti is looking forward to joining Sisterhood, book club, and playing Mahjong. We look forward to joining BEKI and being part of synagogue life.

Jerise Fogel's original sketch of the lettering for our new BEKI bimah: "Hinei mah tov u-mah na'im shevet achim gam yachad," which can be loosely translated as "How good and pleasant it is when we come together as one."

Thursday Minyan at 6:45 pm

Thursday minyan now has a 6:45 pm start time and will feature children's quiet activities, bedtime biscuits, and "PJs optional" for those under age 7. To make it easy to remember: both Thursday am & pm services begin later: 8:15 am and 6:45 pm.

Sunday Minyan at 9:30 am

Sunday minyan has shifted to a 9:30 am start time. This minyan will be led by Rabbi Woodward and (eventually) his Sunday morning bnai mitzvah class.

Interested in Converting to Judaism?

Join the New Haven area Zoom-based Introduction to Judaism course. Taught by a variety of local rabbis, this is a course for anyone interested in exploring conversion to Judaism. Talk to Rabbi Woodward if you are interested.

Tefillah Team

BEKI's Tefillah Team meets every Thursday at 7 pm for an hour to practice melodies for the upcoming Shabbat Shacharit. On Shabbat morning, the Team sings together with the leader, fostering an uplifting prayer atmosphere. This inspiring community effort enhances everyone's Shabbat experience.

Tefilah Leaders Cohort

This group meets monthly and aims to bring together prayer leaders in the community for the purpose of helping each other reflect and develop as daveners. For more information, please reach out to Elan Weinstock or Sylva Kroeber.

Torah Reading

We encourage all people who know how to leyn or are learning how to leyn to join our rotation of Torah readers. We always need more people to help out on Shabbat morning.

Torah reading is scheduled monthly based on individual availability. If you'd like to be included in the rotation, please email sarahsilverman24@gmail.com.

Talmud Study

Sunday Talmud class begins again with Rabbi Woodward on Sundays Oct. 5, 19, and 26 at 11 am in the library.

Dinner & Presentation Oct. 27

Sisterhood's second annual Sisterhood membership dinner will feature a presentation by BEKI member Sarah Silverman on Neurodiversity and Its Relationship to Learning and Teaching.

Sarah Silverman

An educator and independent faculty developer focusing on neurodiversity, disability studies, and inclusive instructional design, Sarah will answer questions after her presentation.

Currently teaching Disability Studies at Goodwin University, Sarah has taught and done faculty development work at University of Michigan, Dearborn; UW Madison; and UC Davis. She regularly presents talks and workshops on topics related to disability, neurodiversity, and pedagogy.

The dinner will be Monday, Oct. 27, at 6:15 pm in BEKI's downstairs social hall. Please come for 5:45 minyan, then stay for dinner and the presentation.

RSVP by Monday, Oct. 20 to BEKISisterhood@gmail.com.

If you are not a member of Sisterhood, please join today.

We invite your suggestions and ideas as we develop ongoing programs to better support one another. If you have ideas about how Sisterhood can better meet your interests, we would like to hear from you.

Please reach out to any Sisterhood Board member directly: Harriet Friedman, Mimi Glenn, Karen Kassap, Jesse Palumbo, Marjorie Wiener.

Yom Kippur Schedule

BEKI offers a meaningful, reflective experience for children during Yom Kippur. We will again feature services for three age groups—the same groups that meet every Shabbat morning.

Children's Havura is for children from birth to age 4. K-2 Kehila welcomes kindergarteners through 2nd graders. And Junior Congregation is for the oldest kids, 3rd-6th graders.

Each age group will gather for tefilah (prayers) in a first session at 11 am. There will be a snack break at 12 noon. (We do provide snacks to children on Yom Kippur.) Then, everyone will return to their groups for a creative activity at 12:30 pm.

We are so grateful for the volunteers, both parents and other community members, who lead this programming and make it so special.

New & Returning BINA Teachers

Our religious school year is back in full swing at BINA. This year, we've welcomed several new teachers, as well as familiar faces returning after time away.

Rachel Beaver is a familiar face around BINA as our former music teacher. After a year away, Rachel is back in New Haven to begin a PhD in Medieval Studies at Yale. Morah Rachel will teach our third grade students.

Rachel Beaver

Isabella Jureller is a new teacher this year, who just moved to New Haven to begin a masters in Public

Isabella Jureller

Health at Yale. A former camp counselor at Camp Ramah in the Berkshires, Morah Bella has a great rapport with our older students. She will teach the sixth grade class on Sundays.

We are so excited to have Rachel Scheinerman back in the classroom this year. The editor of MyJewishLearning.com, Rachel is an experienced educator as well as a BEKI member and parent. Morah Rachel will be teaching the sixth grade class on Wednesdays.

Eden Migdal is new to BINA this year. She is a junior at Yale from Riverdale, New York. Morah Eden will be our Hebrew Specialist, working one-on-one with BINA students who need extra help in Hebrew language. Her work helps us welcome new students who come to BINA with less Hebrew experience, as well as students with special needs.

Sam Werlin is a new madrich (classroom aide) at BINA. Sam is a BINA graduate, a former Teen Keshet student, and a sophomore at Engineering and Science University Magnet School (ESUMS). We are so excited to have Moreh Sam helping in our 4th grade class this year.

WAVE YOUR LULAV HIGH

I used to fence as a child. I fenced épée, and although I was not tall enough to be very good, I loved it. And so I appreciate the following teaching I once heard, based on this midrash:

Just as in a duel, the two combatants go into a room, and you know who wins, because they exit with their sword held high, so too does Israel go into a room with the Yetzer Hara (the evil inclination) in Elul, and we know who wins because Israel comes out holding their lulav high!

Eric Woodward

I can't remember the source of this midrash. But it's clearly an interpretation of the following midrash about Sukkot (Midrah Tehillim 118):

On Rosh Hashanah, all nations stand in judgment before the Holy Blessed One, and each nation says, "We have triumphed in judgment." But on Yom Kippur, the Holy Blessed One, pardons Israel and forgives their sins, as it says (Leviticus 16:30), "For on this day God will forgive you."

Yet, we still do not know who won the judgment, whether Israel or the nations of the world. When the holiday of Sukkot arrives, all Israel take their lulavs and proclaim their faith in the righteous one of the world, as if he has come and conquered, and they know that Israel has won the judgment. Therefore, say to the righteous that it is good.

What does all of this mean? For one thing, it means that, if you see a kid hitting another kid with a lulav, and you say, "a lulav is not a sword," well... it kind of is a sword.

But more than that, it means that Sukkot is a celebration of all the spiritual work you've done over the holidays. It's a way to say: we really got through this together. It's a time to feel proud and thankful.

I'm writing this in early September, but you should be reading it around Yom Kippur. May you celebrate the growth you have gone through, and if you feel that perhaps you need more growing — more teshuvah — you certainly have time to do it, if you start now. So wave your lulav high.

Karen Kassap, Kapparat, mixed media. Information about her work is at Karenkassap.com.

Advertise in the Bulletin

Would you like your ad here in the coming year? Each month, the BEKI bulletin reaches over 700 households, most of them in the New Haven area. Check with Peggy in the BEKI office about our variety of ad rates.

Easy Fundraiser

The Stop & Shop gift cards sold by the BEKI office are debit cards for groceries or gasoline. This is an ongoing fundraiser that costs you nothing. Contact Peggy office@beki.org to arrange pickup.

Join BEKI on Facebook

Everyone is encouraged to join the BEKI Facebook group. You'll enjoy the humor, community information, and links to cultural opportunities. You'll want to choose the private group with the stained-glass window image. Just ask to join. (The BEKI page with the hamsa is the public-facing page, which has few postings).

E-Statements

Due to rising costs and BEKI's efforts to be more Earth-friendly, we have transitioned to e-statements and e-yahrzeits. If you prefer to receive them by paper, please contact the BEKI office at office@beki.org or 203-389-2108 x114. The BEKI Green Team supports BEKI's movement toward paperless communications and hopes the community will also.
