This year, BEKI will begin using a new prayerbook for the High Holidays. We are proud to introduce Mahzor Lev Shalem which we hope will make services even more accessible and meaningful for BEKI members and our guests.

Why is this book different. . . ?

Come have brunch and learn more about the Mahzor with Rabbi Feld, as well as our very own Rabbi Jon-Jay Tilsen, who will guide us as we explore the new prayerbook in preparation for the holidays.
