

EXPLORING BEKI'S MUSICAL HERITAGE

A SIX WEEK COURSE WITH

RACHEL ADELSTEIN, PhD

RACHEL ADELSTEIN

will teach a six-part course introducing us to and familiarizing us with the composers of the musical liturgy we sing at BEKI. Many of us know the tunes very well. Who were the composers? Where were they from? What inspired their melodies?

Our instructor is an ethnomusicologist with a PhD from the University of Chicago. Rachel has a particular interest in contemporary Jewish liturgical music. She is a gifted teacher and it is always a treat to learn with her. Please join us to hear beautiful tunes and learn about their origins.

The course will be held
Monday evenings at 8:00PM
January 10- February 14
