

Tiqun Leil Shavuot

Late Night Adult Study at BEKI

Tuesday Night 30 May 2017
8p to 12:30a

Mincha Afternoon Services 8p • Festival Evening Service 8:10p • Session One 8:30p to 9:30p • Session Two 9:45p to 10:45p • Session Three 11:00p to 12:01a+ Refreshments (Pareve & Dairy) • Doors Locked after 11:00p

Featuring the teaching of

Morris Bell

Desert Storms –

Torah & Trauma (8:30p)

Dr. Morris Bell is Professor in the Department of Psychiatry at Yale University School of Medicine and Senior Research Career Scientist for the Dept. of Veterans Affairs Rehabilitation Research and Development Service. Trained as a clinical and neuropsychologist, Dr. Bell's career as clinician and researcher has been devoted to exploring interventions to restore cognitive and work function for people with severe and persistent mental disorders. His work spans four decades and has had wide national and international influence. He is a BEKI member. Morris will explore current responses to trauma in light of the Exodus and Sinai narrative.

Continued →

Sydney Perry

Approaching the Mountain

(9:45p)

Sydney Perry is the Director of Education, Jewish Wellness and Healing Center of the Jewish Family Service of Greater New Haven, a past CEO of the Jewish Federation of Greater New Haven, and past principal of MAKOM. She writes and teaches frequently in local and global settings on Torah-based themes pertaining to leadership, community and Jewish learning.

Jason Gaines

Poetry Revelations (11:00p)

Dr. Jason Gaines teaches Hebrew Bible, Jewish studies, and religious studies at Fairfield University in Connecticut and Mount Holyoke College in South Hadley, Massachusetts, and will assume a visiting faculty position at Smith College. His first book, The Poetic Priestly Source, was published in December 2015. Jason is a native of New Mexico, and he currently lives in New Haven, and is active at Temple Beth Tikvah where his husband, Cantor Kevin Margolius, serves.

The shiurim and Tiqun conclude after midnight. Sponsored in honor of Miriam Benson on her birthday by her family. To sponsor for next year or endow this annual event contact office@beki.org.