Talmud Study Group with Rabbi Woodward

Whether you have never studied Talmud before, or whether you have studied it a lot, you'll find this class to be accessible and inspiring. We are starting with a story near the end of what is known as Chapter 2 of Tractate Shabbat, a story that involves drama, mysticism, and revolution against the Romans. This is a great place to begin to, or return to, Talmud study.

Upcoming Events

Saturday, February 14 at 12:45pm
Shabbat Niggun Circle

Niggun is a wordless, melodic Jewish song or tune that is often sung by groups. It can be a form of personal and communal meditation which can “awaken and excite the soul.” Please join us for a collective song circle. All are welcome. Want to know more? Contact shoshanazax@gmail.com

Saturday, February 21 at 12:45pm
Shabbat Schmooze – Hagbah Workshop

In this session, you'll learn the proper stance, grip, and technique to safely and respectfully raise the Torah, revealing its text to the congregation as a powerful symbol of Torah's accessibility to all. No need to be a bodybuilder--just bring curiosity, readiness, and a willingness to grow.

Elm City Winds (New Date!) Annual Concert at BEKI

Elm City Winds has delighted audiences at BEKI for years. The much-loved woodwind quintet will enchant us once again with a variety of classical and popular music as well as introductions to the pieces, giving historical and musical context to the works they have chosen especially for us. They are a unique group featuring artists from a range of occupations who come together in the name of music and social good. Free admission - donations will be requested to support World Central Kitchen, a nonprofit by Chef José Andrés which provides meals to communities during crises and disasters. Concert will be held indoors.
