FROM PESAH TO SHAVUOT

Sefira – Counting the Omer

At the second Seder (Saturday night 23 April 2016), we begin daily sefirat ha-omer (counting of the omer), a counting of days to Shavuot, the next major festival. The counting, preferably done each night for 49 nights, is an expression of eager anticipation, commemorating the period of expectation and preparation we experienced in the Exodus from Egypt until the revelation at Sinai.

The simple home ceremony is printed in most siddurim (prayer books), including Sim Shalom, immediately after the weekday evening service. While it is a mitzva prescribed for adults, sefirat ha-omer can also be a fun, artistic and joyous ritual for families with children.

In the days before printed calendars, calendar watches and daily newspapers, the sefira served to keep the liturgical calendar of the Jewish People synchronized, no simple accomplishment, given the dispersion and isolation of much of the community. The term omer refers to the measure (one handful) of grain that was used to create a physical relic of the counting. With a physical reminder, even illiterate people could do a recount in case they forgot the day’s number.

Families with young children may use this opportunity to help their children understand and experience anticipation, planning, counting and hope.

Teach us to number our days, that we may attain a heart of wisdom

– Psalm 90:12

Yizkor Memorial Service

The Yizkor Memorial Service will be held during the 9:15a Shabbat Festival morning service on Shabbat 30 April 2016. The Festival service includes a Shaharit morning service, Hallel (Psalms of praise), a Torah reading and Haftara, and the Musaf additional service, and concludes by 12:15p. The Yizkor memorial service is one of four such services during the year that help us recognize our feelings of loss, which are often especially intense during the Pesah season, and to honor the memories of our loved ones.

Yom HaShoah – Holocaust Memorial Day

Yom HaShoah, a memorial day for the horban, the destruction of Jewish civilization in Europe, will be observed on Wednesday night 4 May and Thursday 5 May 2016. See the Sisterhood section in this issue for information on yellow Holocaust memorial candles.

Yom HaZikaron, Yom HaAtzmaut

Yom HaZikaron, Israeli Memorial Day, is observed Tuesday 10 May and Wednesday 11 May 2016; Yom HaAtzmaut, Israel Independence Day, is observed on Wednesday night 11 May and Thursday 12 May 2016. These back-to-back holidays recognize the combination of suffering and joy, of sacrifice and achievement that often necessarily come together in our lives. All of these days are marked liturgically in public worship at BEKI. This Year, BEKI will participate with other local synagogues and agencies in New Haven Israel Fest marking the day.

LaG BeOmer
BEKI’s Practically Annual LaG BeOmer Kumsitz Campfire Sing-along will be on Wednesday night 25 May 2016, at the residence of hosts Andy Hirshfield & Monica Starr, 145 Cleveland Road, New Haven. Gathering begins at 6:30p; counting the Omer will be after 8:15p. Hebrew and other Jewish folk-songs will be sung, many bags of marshmallows will be consumed, and countless twigs will be burned in the fire. Free parking for BEKI members and their guests.

This Sing-along is made possible with the support of the Morris & Sara Oppenheim Endowment for Sacred Music at Beth El-Keser Israel and by Andy & Monica.

Shavuot Two-Day Festival: The Jewish Hajj
The Festival of Shavuot (“Weeks”), one of the three major pilgrimage festivals, celebrates the anniversary of the Giving of the Torah at Sinai some 3,328 years ago. The word hag (pilgrimage festival) is known widely by its Arabic cognate, hajj (which, for Muslims, means pilgrimage to Mecca). The Torah commands, “Three times a year—on the Feast of Unleavened Bread, on the Feast of Weeks, and on the Feast of Booths—all your males shall appear before the Lord your God in the place that He will choose. They shall not appear before the Lord empty-handed, but each with his own gift, according to the blessing that the Lord your God has bestowed upon you” (Deut. 16:16-17).

Shavuot comes at the culmination of the counting of seven weeks from Pesah, and will be a major observance at BEKI this summer. Just as we look forward to important events in our personal lives, so too our ancestors enthusiastically and devoutly anticipated the event at Sinai. By participating in BEKI’s Shavuot observance, we re-enact the extraordinary experience of our ancestors and show our own enthusiasm for receiving Torah.

The traditional greeting is Ḥagg Sameaḥ – Happy Festival.

Tiqun Leil Shavuot
Our annual Tiqun Leil Shavuot Night of Study takes place on the first night of Shavuot, Motse’ei Shabbat (Saturday Night) 11 June 2016. Dairy and pareve refreshments will be served.

The Shabbat minha afternoon service is at its usual hour, 5:45p – 6:15p. The Shavuot evening begins with the Festival Evening Service from 9p – 9:20p in the George G. Posener Daily Chapel. A shiur (text study or lecture) will begin at 9:20p.

Shiurim (sessions) will be presented late into the evening. Please see “This Week at BEKI” for a complete list of presenters and schedule.

Shavuot Mornings
Yizkor Memorial Service
Book of Ruth
The Shavuot First Day Festival Shaharit Morning Service begins at 9:15a on Sunday 12 June 2016. The service includes the full recitation of Hallel. The afternoon and evening services begin at 5:45p. Candle lighting Sunday night is at 9:07p or later.

The Shavuot Second Day Morning service begins at 9:15a on Monday 13 June 2016. The Festival service includes a Shaharit morning service, Hallel (Psalms of praise), a Torah reading and Haftara. Following the Haftara (prophetic reading), the Yizkor Memorial Service is held. The Yizkor memorial service is one of four such services during the year that help us recognize our feelings of loss, which are sometimes especially intense during the Festival season, and to honor the memories of our loved ones.

Following Yizkor, the Book of Ruth is read to a uniquely beautiful and ancient melody based on the same system of ta’amei hamiqra (“trope”) found in most of the Hebrew Bible. Then the Festival Musaf additional service is recited.

Some Congregants may leave during qiddush for a hike to the top of West Rock. Weather permitting, bring appropriate shoes and leave with friends from the lobby.

The Festival Minha service is held in the George G. Posener Daily Chapel from 5:45p to 6:05p.
Sisterhood

May is a busy month starting off with Yom HaShoah and ending with Lag BeOmer. Sisterhood is sponsoring a Yom HaShoah program on Saturday 21 May after qiddush. Our guest is Dr. Krystyna Gorniak-Kocikowska, Professor of Philosophy and Religious Studies at Southern Connecticut State University. She will discuss her family’s experiences during and after the Holocaust.

Yom HaZikaron

Yom HaZikaron is observed on 11 May. It was established with the founding of the State of Israel in 1948, and enacted into law in 1963, the day preceding Yom Ha’Atzmaut (Israeli Independence Day). Yom HaZikaron is observed as a memorial day for soldiers and others who lost their lives in battle or otherwise defending Israel.

In Israel, beginning at sunset the night before and lasting throughout the entire day, places of entertainment are closed by law while shops, restaurants and movie theaters are shut down by tradition. The radio and television stations play stories about Israel’s wars and air programming that conveys the somber mood of the day.

Air raid sirens are sounded twice during the course of the day. During the two-minute blast, all activity – including traffic on the highways – immediately ceases. People stand in respect for the sacrifice of those who died defending Israel.

Public ceremonies are held throughout Israel with special readings and poems often recited. There is a national ceremony at the military cemetery on Mt. Herzl, where many of Israel’s leaders and soldiers are buried.

Today people also remember security guards who have given their lives while protecting public buildings, restaurants and cafes from terrorist attacks.

In tune with the Jewish tradition of recognizing joy in times of sadness and sadness in times of joy, Yom HaZikaron’s somber end heralds the beginning of the joyous and festive Yom Ha’Atzmaut.

Yom Ha’Atzmaut: Israel Independence Day

Held on the fifth day of the Hebrew month of Iyar, this year 12 May, Yom Ha’Atzmaut is a modern holiday celebrating Israeli’s Independence in 1948. It always occurs immediately after Yom HaZikaron. The message is that Israelis owe their independence – the very existence of the state – to the soldiers who sacrificed their lives for it.

There is a ceremony after sundown at Jerusalem’s Mount Herzl military cemetery in which the national flag is raised from half staff to the top of the pole. The President of Israel will deliver a speech of congratulations while soldiers representing all the various branches and units of the Israel Defense Forces parade with their flags. An evening parade is followed by a torch lighting ceremony, symbolically marking the country’s achievements in all spheres of life.

For American Jews, celebrating Yom HaAtzmaut is a way to express solidarity with the State of Israel and to strengthen their alliance with it.

Shabbatot (Saturdays)

Darshanim

Darshan – noun, plural dar·sha·nim. Judaism. a preacher or teacher of Aggada or Halakha in a synagogue.

Rabbi Tilsen has invited the following speakers to serve as guest Darshanim in the coming weeks:

Caleb Freiman, bar mitzva, parashat Qedoshim, 14 May.
Ayelet Kaminski, bat mitzva, parashat BeHuqotai, 4 June.
Dmitri Ratner, bar mitzva, parashat Naso, 18 June.
Noam Benson-Tilsen, bar mitzva, parashat BeHa`alotekha, 25 June.

Shabbat Shalom Torah Study

The Shabbat Shalom Torah Study meets every other Saturday morning at 10:45a in the office and is an ideal setting for veteran and novice shulgoers alike to explore the scriptural readings and liturgy of the day in a supportive setting. Expertly led by Steven Fraade, with Rabbi Alan Lovins, Rabbi Murray Levine, Nadav Sela, Isaiah Cooper and others, the Shabbat Shalom Torah Study is a nurturing exploration of practice and theory presented in a participatory, non-threatening and multi-generational setting. Many members who take advantage of this unique offering feel a deeper sense of awe born of increased understanding and appreciation of the Torah reading, Haftara (Prophetic reading) and liturgy.

The program often focuses on the scriptural readings, but also addresses the prayer liturgy and other topics related to the liturgical calendar, scriptural readings or current issues of concern.

Beginning Hebrew with Will

Beginning Hebrew with Will meets every other Saturday morning from 10:45a – 11:45a in the office (on the weeks that Shabbat Shalom Torah Study does not meet). Practice Hebrew listening, speaking, and Alef-Bet recognition. Modern Hebrew; suitable for those interested in Biblical and Prayer Book study as well. Free; all welcome. With Will Auriemme.

Mondays

Rashi Study Group: Shemuel

Each Monday morning from 7:45a to 8:30a adults meet in the Library Chapel to read Rashi’s commentary on the TaNaKh (Hebrew Bible). The Rashi Study Group (RSG) is reading Shemuel Bet (Second Samuel), called “second” as it is the second volume of a single continuous narrative split in two for convenience. Characters in the narrative include the Prophet Samuel, King Saul and King David, Michal, Batsheva, and more. It is possible to join the study group for a single meeting or to begin at any time. Knowledge of Hebrew is not necessary. Rashi purported to explain the peshat of the text, i.e., the meaning in its historical, literary and linguistic context. Visitors and new participants are welcome. Hebrew and English texts are available. The RSG meets immediately following the 7:00a shaharit morning service. With Jon-Jay Tilsen.

Wednesdays

Hebrew Word of the Week

The Wednesday morning service (shaharit) features a 180-second “Hebrew word of the Week” to promote the learning of Hebrew. The Hebrew language is highly structured. Most words are based on three-letter roots, and are made with a limited set of verb or noun forms. By learning a few dozen roots and a small set of word-forms, it is possible to roughly translate Hebrew words isolated from any context, something less often possible in English. The Word of the Week often relates to the weekly scriptural readings, enhancing personal study and public Torah discussion.

Levine. The Wednesday study group affords local rabbis an opportunity to pursue their own talmud torah (Torah study) in a “safe” setting and with opportunities to learn from each other’s experience and insight. The study group meets Wednesday mornings in the Rosenkrantz Family Library. For more information, call Rabbi Murray Levine at 203.397-2513.

Thursdays

Mini Morning Learning Service
The Thursday morning services are supplemented with commentary and teaching relating to the history, themes, choreography and language of the daily morning service. Shaharit service is from 8:15a to 9:15a on Thursdays; on other weekdays, the service begins at 7:00a.

Sanhedrin Talmud Study Group
The Sanhedrin Talmud Study Group meets on Thursdays from 1p to 2p and has met weekly since 1999. For some participants, this is their first direct experience with Talmud text; for others, it is a continuation of a long journey. The Group focuses on the issues raised in the Talmud, with less attention to the technical aspects of the text. Knowledge of Hebrew or Aramaic is helpful but not required.

The Talmud, based on an oral text, has no beginning or end. One can begin study at any point; now is the best time. The Sanhedrin Talmud Study Group meets in BEKI’s Rosenkrantz Family Library. With Rabbi Tilsen.

Kadima News
Kadimaniks have been enjoying lots of fun and games. Between our Game Night and the BEKI Purim Seuda, it has been a blast. We came together for a Shabbat dinner in April and can’t wait for our trampoline park event in May.

USY participated in community events for Purim, making mishloach manot for the folks at Coachman Square, which were delivered with Bnai Jacob’s own Rabbi Rona. We ran the carnival booths at BEKI’s amazing Purim Seuda. We also collaborated with our West Hartford friends for an epic paintball event, and we can’t forget our Deli Boxes fundraiser, in which the whole community came together to support us. Thank you so much to everyone who participated. We had a delicious Shabbat dinner, and we are very excited for our camping trip at the end of the year.

Endowment for BEKI Kids at Camp Ramah

As part of his preparation for becoming a Bar Mitzva, Noam Benson-Tilsen, son of Rabbi Jon-Jay Tilsen & Miriam Benson, completed a course of study in the BEKI Benei Mitzva Program, which included study of sacred and contemporary texts and learning to lead services. To mark the beginning of Noam’s acceptance of adult responsibilities toward God and Humanity, Noam has established an endowment at the Jewish Foundation of Greater New Haven to support BEKI youth in attending Camp Ramah, our affiliated summer day camp.

Last summer, 22 BEKI youth attended Camp Ramah of New England, in Palmer, Mass., including two on staff. BEKI has one of the largest Ramah contingents in Connecticut and the largest in proportion to membership. Ramah has been the single most popular camp among BEKI youth for many years. The Camp offers a wide range of activities, all in the context of a kosher and Shabbat-observant community. Staff members come from across the United States and Israel, and include Jewish Theological Seminary students and faculty.

The endowment will provide a small subsidy each year to BEKI youth to attend Camp Ramah. While camp tuition is expensive, Ramah provides a generous package of scholarships and aid to enable qualified youth to attend. In addition, BEKI Sisterhood’s Marcel Gutman Scholarship Fund provides a subsidy to youth in grades 8-12 to attend Ramah and other Jewish camps and Israel programs, and the Jewish Federation and Jewish Foundation’s Jewish Scholarship Initiative also provides support for Jewish camping. This new endowed camp scholarship could use up to $1.25 million to provide full support, though the expectation is that it will be funded on the order of 1 percent to 2 percent of that full amount.

If you would like to contribute to this endowment, checks payable to “Cong. Beth El-Keser Israel” can be sent to “BEKI, 85 Harrison St., New Haven, CT 06515” with a memo notation “NOAM.” Contributions are tax-deductible; BEKI is a recognized 501(c)3 non-profit organization. Contributions can also be made directly to the Jewish Foundation of Greater New Haven and directed to the Noam Benson-Tilsen Fund.

For more information on this fund or on creating other funds for the benefit of BEKI, contact Jewish Foundation Director Lisa Stanger (lstanger@jewishnewhaven.org) 203.387.2424 x382.
We celebrated National Mix It Up Day in October to foster greater respect and understanding among our students.

A Message from Rabbi Tilsen

Attack on Liberty

The billboard on I-95 simply states, “Help the USS Liberty Survivors, attacked by Israel, www.HonorLibertyVets.org.” Here is an explanation of why this is nothing more or less than anti-Jewish hate speech, as well as an explanation of what the USS Liberty incident was about.

On 8 June 1967, in the midst of the Six Day War, the Israel Air Force and Navy attacked the US Naval vessel Liberty off the coast of Sinai, killing 34 American crew members and wounding 171 others. The official Israeli and American explanation was that it was a case of mistaken identity; the Israeli government apologized and paid reparations. However, numerous conspiracy theories have circulated claiming that the attack was intentional.

There is no explanation that can neutralize the raw narrative that Israeli forces bombed a US Naval vessel and killed 34 crew members. Raising the incident in the context of a freeway billboard is simply a tool to promote hostility toward Jews and Israel. The billboard does nothing beyond impugning Israel (“attacked by Israel”), while falsely implying that it represents the voices or honor of American veterans. A billboard on I-95 is not going to elicit another Congressional hearing on the incident, but it will affect viewers’ attitudes toward Israel.

There are thousands of recorded instances of “friendly fire,” in which military forces kill and maim their own soldiers or allies, either through some unlikely chain of unfortunate events, equipment failure, or just as likely a long string of stupid deadly screw-ups or SNAFUs (to use the military term). Rarely is there a claim that this was done intentionally, because those involved understand that the fog of battle and the other circumstances lead to such incidents.

One of the thousands of recorded friendly fire incidents occurred near Kandahar, Afghanistan, in April 2002, when four members of Princess Patricia’s Canadian light infantry regiment were killed (and others injured) after a US Air National Guard major dropped a bomb on them from an F-16 jet fighter. The pilot claimed he was confused. There was no American apology. Could it be that a trained American warrior could not tell the difference between Princess Patricia and the Taliban? Was this the first salvo in an effort to conquer Canada, or payback for one of those many historical Canadian atrocities? Is “accident” really enough of an excuse to these dead Canadian patriots? Don’t they deserve a better explanation? Are Canadians placing billboards along their freeways demanding an investigation into America’s attack on the Princess Patricia’s regiment, in the name of HonorPrincessPatriciasRegimentVets.org, with the lead line “attacked by the United States”?

There is a long history of American military cover-ups concerning war dead. I have directly heard from WWII veterans that they occasionally covered up (lied about) the circumstances of the deaths of soldiers under their command. The letter to the bereaved family would say, “your son died a hero in the battle of such-and-such,” when the truth would have been, “your idiot son got drunk and drove a jeep into a tree.”

But it is worse than that. There are hundreds of famous intentional “surprise” attacks in the context of wars or conflicts – Fort Sumter, Pearl Harbor, Hiroshima, Dresden,

London, Bay of Pigs – as well as hundreds of memorable terrorist attacks. While we can talk about them and memorialize them, generally we don’t use them to stir up anti-Dixie or anti-Japanese or anti-American sentiments at this point. We can have our judgments, but there is no point in complaining about the Japanese today due to their attack on Pearl Harbor or the British for their treachery in 1812.

The billboard, sponsored by known anti-Semites, was followed by several letters to the New Haven Register from collaborating anti-Semites from California, Colorado and Massachusetts, whom I can only guess are not daily readers of the Register. Talk about conspiracy.

You don’t have to accept my classification of those writers as “anti-Semites.” You can Google them and see what else they have written and draw your own conclusions.

The billboard sponsor and supporters claim that the US Naval and other personnel have a “right to know what really happened.” That proposition is dubious. The USS Liberty was operating under the command of the National Security Agency (NSA), not the Navy, and it is the ethic of the intelligence services -- formalized in law -- that personnel do not have a right to know the details or purpose of their mission, particularly when the mission is classified. (The military also has a similar ethic.) Whether releasing the truth about the incident at this point would be harmful to national security is a judgment that is left to the Obama Administration and Congress. Military and intelligence secrecy is inherently at odds with democratic ideals, but it is ubiquitous; this one case is not remarkable. The slip of a lip can sink a ship. The billboard sponsors do not seek the investigation of or release of classified information about any of the large number of causalities related to botched intelligence operations – just this one, which just happens to involve Israel. If their cause were about the public’s right or the veterans’ right to know, it should be a wide claim, not focused on Israel.

The billboard inspired anti-Semites to write to the Register and to discuss the incident in other media. Statements from those letters include “the U.S. government at the time bowed down to Israel,” “Israel lobby’s lock-hold on Congress,” “what Israel is doing to the Palestinians,” “the ADL’s loyalties are with Israel and not America,” Israel’s “atrocities,” “the extrajudicial killing of an unarmed Palestinian man at a checkpoint,” suggesting that this is nothing more than an anti-Israel free-for-all. Those statements have nothing really to do with the incident of the Liberty. There is no real concern for the naval personnel, no concern for promoting international law, no concern for Palestinians or Egyptians, and probably no real concern for the truth. Just an opportunity to bash Israel. Indeed, mainstream veterans’ groups have refused to recognize or support this off-the-wall outfit which purports to be the voice of veterans but is really just another congeries of anti-Semites, a “Swift Boat Veterans for the Truth: anti-Israel edition.” Their only consistent aim is to promote hostility toward Israel.

Having said all that, I agree with the claim of these anti-Semites that Israel’s attack on the Liberty was not an accident and that the American government covered it up, with Israel’s cooperation. Israel’s bombing of the ship was in self-defense and was in itself lawful under conventional international rules of war, and was proportional. The USS Liberty -- the most technologically-sophisticated communications spy ship in the world -- was collecting data for a secret operation that included “leaking” Israel’s Order of Battle to the Egyptians, Syrians and Jordanians. Conveying Israel’s battle plans to its enemies during the war would likely have cost Israel many fatalities and possibly brought military failure. The US committed an act of war against a friendly nation, which may have been illegal under American law. We know this today through declassified materials, published accounts of the Israeli, American and British personnel involved, and the recordings of Arab leaders (Egypt’s Nasser and Jordan’s King Hussein) discussing the information leaked to them by the Americans (via the British in Cyprus) – recordings intercepted by Israeli intelligence.

Israel’s attack was surgical and designed to minimize fatalities – and indeed, only 34 persons were killed, despite Israel’s capacity to blow the ship out of the water, and despite the remarkable fact that no air cover or rescue support was provided the Liberty by the US Navy, even though American forces were only minutes away. Specifically, Israel made sure the crew knew it was about to be attacked so they could seek cover (which they did at the right moment), and then dropped chemicals on the deck to destroy the communication equipment the Liberty was using to sabotage Israel. Immediately after the attack to destroy the communications equipment, by all accounts, Israel offered assistance to the survivors.

Today, any computer science or math student can readily grasp how the Liberty was able to discern Israel’s battle plans, but in 1967 this cutting-edge technology was classified and beyond the imagination of most Americans (including those on the ship). It was an act of genius for Israeli intelligence to figure it out in 1967 (or at least clever spying to learn what the Liberty was doing), though it seems obvious 50 years later to people who understand the power of big data à la Twitter and Google.

It is not clear if the White House was aware of the American act of war against Israel, or if it was a rogue NSA operation, but it is clear that the Administration wanted the incident suppressed. Why exactly that served American purposes is open to speculation. Whether it was the intelligence agencies, the Democratic White House, or the oil industry that most wanted this story squelched is unclear. The use of British intelligence to circumvent America’s own laws is a well-documented and continuing practice, which American Administrations do not want to discuss; perhaps this was what the Administration was hiding.

By the same token, why Israel collaborated in the cover-up is also open to speculation. Perhaps Israel was just trying to accommodate the American administration. Or perhaps Israel’s leaders did not want “everyone” to know how utterly alone Israel really was during the war, to the point that even the United States betrayed them. Recall that this incident occurred after the United Nations capitulated to Egyptian threats and withdrew its peacekeeping forces from Sinai, and America and its allies failed to keep their commitment to insure free international maritime passage, which was critical for Israel and for the rule of law. The White House had talked about organizing or leading an international naval flotilla to assert freedom on the seas, but failed to deliver, which was a major contributing factor to the outbreak of war. Perhaps Israel did not want to have to explain how it figured out what the American ship was really doing, or perhaps Israel thought it could continue to extract a price for keeping America’s secret. Or maybe Israel simply did not want to be subject to endless conspiracy theories.

It is clear, though, that the billboard is part of an anti-Jewish conspiracy.
