FROM PESAH TO SHAVUOT

Sefira – Counting the Omer

At the second Seder, we began daily sefirat ha-omer (counting of the omer), a counting of days to Shavuot, the next major festival. The counting, preferably done each night for 49 nights, is an expression of eager anticipation, commemorating the period of expectation and preparation we experienced in the Exodus from Egypt until the revelation at Sinai.

The simple home ceremony is printed in most siddurim (prayer books), including Sim Shalom, immediately after the weekday evening service. While it is a mitzva prescribed for adults, sefirat ha-omer can also be a fun, artistic and joyous ritual for families with children.

In the days before printed calendars, calendar watches and daily newspapers, the sefira served to keep the liturgical calendar of the Jewish People synchronized, no simple accomplishment, given the dispersion and isolation of much of the community. The term omer refers to the measure (one handful) of grain that was used to create a physical relic of the counting. With a physical reminder, even illiterate people could do a recount in case they forgot the day’s number.

Families with young children may use this opportunity to help their children understand and experience anticipation, planning, counting and hope.

Teach us to number our days, that we may attain a heart of wisdom – Psalm 90:12

Shavuot Two-Day Festival: The Jewish Hajj

The Festival of Shavuot (“Weeks”), one of the three major pilgrimage festivals, celebrates the anniversary of the Giving of the Torah at Sinai some 3,330 years ago. The word hag (pilgrimage festival) is known widely by its Arabic cognate, hajj (which, for Muslims, means pilgrimage to Mecca). The Torah commands, “Three times a year—on the Feast of Unleavened Bread, on the Feast of Weeks, and on the Feast of Booths—all your males shall appear before the Lord your God in the place that He will choose. They shall not appear before the Lord empty-handed, but each with his own gift, according to the blessing that the Lord your God has bestowed upon you” (Deut. 16:16-17).

Shavuot comes at the culmination of the counting of seven weeks from Pesah, and will be a major observance at BEKI this summer. Just as we look forward to important events in our personal lives, so too our ancestors enthusiastically and devoutly anticipated the event at Sinai. By participating in BEKI’s Shavuot observance, we re-enact the extraordinary experience of our ancestors and show our own enthusiasm for receiving Torah.

The traditional greeting is הָגָה סָמַךְ — Happy Festival.

Tiqun Leil Shavuot

Our annual Tiqun Leil Shavuot Night of Study takes place on the first night of Shavuot, Motse’ei Shabbat (Saturday night) 19 May 2018. Dairy and pareve refreshments will be served.

The Shabbat minha afternoon service is 5:45p to 6:20p. The Shavuot evening begins with the Festival Evening Service from 8:15p – 8:30p in the George G. Posener Daily Chapel. Candle lighting (home ritual) is at 8:49p.

“Off the Record with Paul Bass” begins at 8:30p, with guests William Tootle and Jonas. Paul will explore with William and Jonas “Why am I Here?” Paul is a reporter and radio show host. He lives in New Haven with his wife. He is a leader in Shabbat and Daily tefila and has been involved in many synagogue projects.

William Tootle is an anthropologist at UCONN interested in medical anthropology, political economy, health disparities, and anthropology of morality. His family is new to BEKI, and lives in New London.

Jonas (image concealed) is a professor of constitutional law, a medical researcher in immunology, and former radio show host. Jonas has been part of the BEKI community for a couple of years and is a new member.

Annie Schiff will present, “A Text Study for Shavuot,” at 9:45p. Annie Schiff is a PhD candidate in Judaic Studies at Yale University, where she is also active in the Jewish community at the Slifka Center. Annie has a passion for Jewish adult education and Jewish nonprofits. She previously completed the Charles and Lynn Schusterman Family Foundation’s Insight Fellowship, during which she worked at American Jewish World Service, Avodah: The Jewish Service Corps, and Limmud New York. She and her fiancé David Norman live in New Haven with their two cats.

Jonathan D. Mohr will present, “Shemita & Yovel as Revolutionary Equality,” at 11p. Jonathan is a graduate of Wilbur Cross High School and a student at Brandeis University. He has been studying the laws of shemita and yovel, the seventh-year and 50th-year expiry for debts and fallow year for croplands. He believes that these laws represent a radical approach to wealth inequality -- and portray how concerned the Halakha is with societal welfare.

Seating is limited. Please see “This Week & Beyond at BEKI” and the May Mid-Month Mailing for a complete and updated list of presenters and schedule.

Cameras, phones and recording equipment is strictly prohibited in these sessions. If you are a first-responder or have other emergency need, please consult Rabbi Tilsen or Peggy Hackett for accommodation.

Shavuot Mornings

Yizkor Memorial Service Book of Ruth

The Shavuot First Day Festival Shaharit Morning Service begins at 9:15a on Sunday 20 May 2018. The service includes the recitation of full Hallel. The afternoon and evening services begin at 5:45p. Candle lighting Sunday night is at 8:51p or later.

The Shavuot Second Day Morning service begins at 9:15a on Monday 21 May 2018. The Festival service includes a Shaharit morning service, Hallel (Psalms of praise), a Torah reading and Haftara. Following the Haftara (prophetic reading), the Yizkor Memorial Service is held. The Yizkor memorial service is one of four such services during the year that help us recognize our feelings of loss, which are sometimes especially intense during the Festival season, and to honor the memories of our loved ones.

Following Yizkor, the Book of Ruth is read to a uniquely beautiful and ancient melody based on the same system of ta’amei hamiqra (“trope”) found in most of the Hebrew Bible. Then the Festival Musaf additional service is recited.

Some Congregants may leave during qiddush for a hike to the top of West Rock. Weather permitting, bring appropriate shoes and leave with friends from the lobby.

The Festival Minha service is held in the George G. Posener Daily Chapel from 5:45p to 6:05p.

Ramah Family Camp
Attend Camp Ramah in New England for Family Camp from 25-28 May. During the weekend you and your family will participate in camp activities like sports and arts, ride the Alpine Tower Swing, raft on the agam (lake), and enjoy an unforgettable Ramah Shabbat experience. We provide child-care for children of all ages and we will even have shmira at night so the adults can go experience camp on their own. The program is always a blast, and you are invited. Info at Ramah Family Camp and from Simon Luxenburg simonl@campramahne.org.

Ramah Prospective Family Day
Join us this summer at Camp Ramah in New England for Prospective Family Day from 10:30a to 2:00p on Sunday 15 July or Sunday 5 August 2018.

See for yourself where all of the Ramah magic happens. Check out the beautiful lake, refurbished tennis courts and sports fields, newly designed arts and crafts and wood-working studios, the thrilling ropes and adventure course and so much more. Tour the spacious bunks and see where Ramah campers eat, pray and play. Learn about the unique Jewish education program which enables Ramah campers to learn Hebrew and study our Jewish heritage in an informal setting. Meet key staff who will answer questions and tell you about the extraordinary opportunities that await your child at Camp Ramah. Camp Ramah offers two-week sessions for children currently in grades 2-3 and four- or eight-week sessions for children in grades 3-10. Info and RSVP Lori Fish Bard lorib@campramahne.org.

Darshanim

Darshan – noun, plural dar·sha·nim. Judaism. a preacher or teacher of Aggada or Halakha in a synagogue.

Rabbi Tilsen has invited the following speakers to serve as guest Darshanim in the coming weeks:

- Maytal Saltiel, parashiyot Aharei Mot – Qedoshim, 28 April
- Rabbi Murray Levine, parashat Shelakh Lekha, 9 June
- David Kuperstock, parashat Qorah, 16 June
- Rabbi Richard Eisenberg, parashat Balaq, 30 June

Shabbat Shalom Torah Study

The Shabbat Shalom Torah Study meets every other Saturday morning at 10:45a in the office and is an ideal setting for veteran and novice shul-goers alike to explore the scriptural readings and liturgy of the day in a supportive setting. Expertly led by Steven Fraade, with Rabbi Alan Lovins, Rabbi Murray Levine, Nadav Sela, Isaiah Cooper and others, the Shabbat Shalom Torah Study is a nurturing exploration of practice and theory presented in a participatory, non-threatening and multi-generational setting. Many members who take advantage of this unique offering feel a deeper sense of awe born of increased understanding and appreciation of the Torah reading, Haftara (Prophetic reading) and liturgy.

The program often focuses on the scriptural readings, but also addresses the prayer liturgy and other topics related to the liturgical calendar, scriptural readings or current issues of concern.

Everyone is welcome to participate regardless of religious status or background. It is suitable for mature youths along with adults.

Mondays

Rashi Study Group: I Kings

Each Monday morning from 7:47a to 8:30a adults meet in the Library Chapel to read Rashi’s commentary on the TaNaKh (Hebrew Bible). The Rashi Study Group (RSG) is reading First Kings. It is possible to join the study group for a single meeting or to begin at any time. Knowledge of Hebrew is not necessary. Rashi purported to explain the peshat of the text, i.e., the meaning in its historical, literary and linguistic context. Visitors and new participants are welcome. Hebrew and English texts are available. The RSG will not meet on the Monday of Shavuot, 21 May 2018. On Memorial Day (USA), 28 May, the RSG will meet from 9:45a to 10:30a.

Wednesdays

Hebrew Word of the Week

The Wednesday morning service (shaharit) features a 180-second “Hebrew word of the Week” to promote the learning of Hebrew. The Hebrew language is highly structured. Most words are based on three-letter roots, and are made with a limited set of verb or noun forms. By learning a few dozen roots and a small set of word-forms, it is possible to roughly translate Hebrew words isolated from any context, something less often possible in English. The Word of the Week often relates to the weekly scriptural readings or current events.

Rabbis’ Study Group

Wednesdays with Murray is a weekly study group exclusively for rabbis and clergy, facilitated by Rabbi Murray Levine. The Wednesday study group affords local rabbis an opportunity to pursue their own talmud torah (Torah study) in a “safe” setting and with opportunities to learn from each other’s experience and insight. The study group meets Wednesday mornings in the Rosenkrantz Family Library during the school year.

In 5778, the rabbis are reviewing selected sugiyot in B. Shabbat. This group is on summer recess until September. For more information, call Rabbi Murray Levine at 203.397.2513.

Thursdays
Mini Morning Learning Service
The Thursday morning services are supplemented with commentary and teaching relating to the history, themes, choreography and language of the daily morning service. Shaharit service is from 8:15a to 9:15a on Thursdays; on other weekdays, the service begins at 7:00a.

Berakhot Talmud Study Group
A weekly study of the Talmud Bavli Berakhot meets in the Beit Midrash on Thursday mornings 10a–11a with Rabbi Tilsen.

The Talmud, a hypertext extended outline of discussion organized around the Mishna and based on an oral text, has no beginning or end. One can begin study at any point; now is the best time. No prior knowledge is required, but basic facility in English is helpful; students with all backgrounds are welcome, beginner to advanced. The Berakhot Talmud Study Group meets the first four Thursdays in May 2018 (so excluding 31 May).
