A MESSAGE FROM RABBI TILSEN

When our sage Hillel said, "Do not leave the community," he was addressing his precept to the scholars, those best able to appreciate the value of community, those with the most to offer the community.

Sometimes people who are ethically or spiritually sensitive get fed-up with their Synagogue community. They may feel personally wronged by the Rabbi, leaders, or community at large. They may have suffered too many insults, petty or major, real or imagined -- being taken for granted as volunteers, being passed over for honors, ignored on the one hand or nudged for dues on the other. They may feel unwelcomed as "too old," intermarried, unmarried, Gay, Lesbian, more liberal or more traditional, or disabled. They may feel embarrassed at not knowing how to pray or read Hebrew. They may feel cut off when the rabbi with whom they had a strong spiritual and emotional bond leaves. Such people may let go of their connection to the community by dropping out of their Synagogue.

Ironically, these are sometimes the very people the community needs most, for they are well-equipped to help the community recognize its problems and to heal itself.

The problem that I am referring to is typical of American congregations. In some places too many decent people walk away from a Synagogue, leaving it without a core of concerned, active members. Fortunately, BEKI has avoided that destructive dynamic. We are blessed with many active members who realize how important the Synagogue is and who are dedicated to build and maintain this special community.

I am reminded of two Israelis discussing the hardships of life in modern Israel. "Four weeks a year in the Army Reserves, sky-high taxes, rock-bottom salaries, meshuga drivers, terrorists, corrupt politicians, rampant sexism, poor postal service, rude and lazy bureaucrats -- who can stand it?" "You're right," said the other, "it's terrible. As soon as they open another Jewish State, I'm moving!"

Many of the most talented and dedicated individuals in this community recognize that BEKI, like every other Synagogue, has certain shortcomings. But instead of seeing those faults as reasons to stay away, they see opportunities for healing, for building, for improving. We must recognize that this community has made tremendous contributions to the spiritual well-being of its members and of the larger community. We have a lot going for us.

As we now conclude the season of Teshuva (Spiritual Return), and as we begin the New Year with new officers and a new rabbi, let us return to the Synagogue as a center of Torah Study, Avoda (worship) and Gemilut Hasadim (Social Action). Let us set aside past differences. Let those whose connection has been weakened be welcomed back with open arms. Let us look together to the future.
HUMAN RIGHTS MISSION TO CROATIA TOPIC OF FRIDAY NIGHT SPEAKER

Mass rapes and other atrocities in the war in former Yugoslavia were among the findings of the legal mission of the International League for Human Rights, to be reported by Marian A. Chatfield-Taylor during Friday night services on 5 November 1993 at 8:00 PM.

Ms Chatfield-Taylor serves as a director of education and training programs for the Women's Center of Southeastern Connecticut and for Connecticut Sexual Assault Crisis Services. She has used her expertise on sexual violence and human rights to lecture, write, advise and train in Connecticut, around the country and abroad.

Please encourage your friends and family to hear this informative and moving report on Friday 5 November at 8:00 PM at BEKI.

ADL DIRECTOR TO SPEAK AT FRIDAY NIGHT SERVICES

Robert Leikind, Regional Director of the Anti-Defamation League, will speak on "The Rise of the Religious Right: Implications for the Jewish Community" during Friday night services on 12 November 1993 at 8:00 PM.

Mr. Leikind, an attorney and member of Beth El-Keser Israel, was recently the subject of an extensive interview on the front page of the Connecticut section of the New York Times. He is a frequent guest on radio and television programs in Connecticut and is known as an energetic and articulate advocate of the ADL's agenda.

Be sure to bring your family and friends to hear Robert Leikind on Friday 12 November at 8:00 PM at BEKI.
JEWISH EDUCATION FOR CHILDREN WITH LEARNING DISABILITIES

Rabbi Tilsen is interested in knowing of Jewish children with learning disabilities who could be served by current and additional educational programs. If you have or know of such children please contact Rabbi Tilsen at the Synagogue office.

FAMILY SERVICE & DINNER SET FOR FRIDAY 19 NOVEMBER

Our first Family Qabalat Shabbat service of the New Year 5754 will be held on 19 November at 6:30 PM. Rabbi Tilsen's topic will be "Frog Legs and other indelicacies." A scrumptious Shabbat dinner follows tefilot (prayer). Please RSVP to the BEKI office and pay by 11 November. Bring your whole family and your friends. This is a wonderful way for our community to share a Shabbat and to introduce neighbors who are not yet BEKI members to our community. The evening, like so many good things, is sponsored by the BEKI Sisterhood.

PAULA HYMAN TO LEAD TORAH DISCUSSION

Professor Paula Hyman will be our guest Darshanit for משלי on shabbat morning 20 November. Dr. Hyman will offer Torah insights and lead discussion following the reading of the weekly portion.

Dr. Hyman, a Yale University faculty member and a member of BEKI, is a frequent contributor of Torah insights in both scholarly literature and popular publications including a recent issue of the Jerusalem Report. Be sure to bring your friends to this enriching discussion during the morning service of 20 November, which begins at 9:15 AM.
LEARNERS' MINYAN CONTINUES

The learners' minyan, held concurrently with the shabbat morning service, is an excellent way to enrich our understanding of the siddur (prayerbook), tefilot (prayer) and the ideals reflected and promoted in our worship. Join leaders Steve Fraade and Alan Lovins at 11:00 AM every other Saturday morning in the BEKI Library for this enlightening experience. The minyan is designed both for those who are new to Saturday morning tefilot and for veterans who wish to gain a deeper understanding and greater facility with the service. All comers, all questions are welcomed. Check the calendar for dates.

LAMAAZEL -- THE JEWISH SPIRITUAL WAY OF CHILDBEARING AND REARING

The first meeting of "LaMaazel -- the Jewish Spiritual way of childbearing and rearing" will be held soon, by invitation. Please let the Synagogue office know of expecting members and neighbors who might like an invitation to the group.

GUARD MY TONGUE (or, watch yo' mouth!)

A new feature joins our weekday evening services beginning 1 November: Guard My Tongue -- selections from the writings of the Hafets Hayim. Each Monday, Wednesday and Thursday evening a 60-second thought for the day on the prevention and treatment of lashon hara (evil speech) will add a new dimension to our prayer experience. Evening services begin at 5:45 and conclude at 6:00.
POINT OF GRAMMAR COMES TO SUNDAY SERVICES

Another new feature, Point of Grammar, comes to our Sunday morning and evening services beginning 7 November. Each week a new 90-second mini-lesson on the Hebrew Language will entertain, enlighten and edify worshippers. Sunday morning services begin at 9:00 and conclude at 9:35; Sunday evening services begin at 5:45 and conclude at 6:00.

UHS HAS ROOM FOR MORE

The fall semester of the United Hebrew School, housed at BEKI, is off to a great start under the direction of Principal Abi Gewirtz. If you know of children K-6 not attending school, please encourage their parents to consider enrolling them in UHS. Call the BEKI office for more information.

DAILY MINYAN PROVES POPULAR

Thanks to the efforts of volunteer coordinators such as Ellen Cohen, Steve Fraade and Moish Shnitman, and thanks to the many dedicated individuals who have made it their business to lead or attend public worship on a regular basis, we have had a minyan (quorum of ten adult Jews) at a remarkable 97% of our scheduled services in recent months.

While we are proud of this strength, we recognize that maintaining our minyan requires continuing efforts. Since our minyan still depends on occasisonal attendance by infrequent participants (for yahrzeits or for spiritual renewal), please consider making one service a week or one service a month or more part of your regular schedule. Also please let it be known in the community that those who need to pray with a minyan on a given day can be almost 100% sure to find one at BEKI.

To our regular minyanaires: Kol ha-Kavod!
HONORABLE MENSCHEN

We owe a debt of gratitude to the many volunteers who contributed so much to the success of our Yamin Noraim High Holy Day 5754 Services and Programs. We applaud you:

MOISH HONORED AT SIMHAT TORAH CELEBRATION BY BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Morris Bernard Shnitman, known to daily service participants as "Moish," was honored during our Simhat Torah celebration with a presentation of appreciation from the Board of Directors for his exemplary volunteer service to the Synagogue. Moish directs and attends our minyanim and gives everyone a smile, even before their first cup of coffee in the morning. Honored as Ḥatan Torah, Moish was called for the very final aliya in the Torah, the concluding chapter of Deuteronomy. Mr. Shnitman joined in the wild celebration that marked our Simhat Torah Shebang.

Moish, you're the best!

SUKKAH ARTS & CRAFTS ENJOYED BY MANY

This year's sukkah arts and crafts program was enjoyed by many neighborhood children and parents. It was a wonderful afternoon of fun and family togetherness. Thanks to Judith Weingarden for providing, setting up and directing the wonderfully creative crafts projects. As one child participant said, "Let's do this again!"

NEW MEMBERS BRUNCH GREAT SUCCESS

Special thanks to Donna Wardle, Rebecca Emert, Lynn Brotman and Miriam Benson for initiating and organizing the New and Prospective Members Brunch at the home of Rabbi Jon-Jay Tilsen and Miriam Benson. The brunch was a great way to make special introductions and to get to know each other.
KASHRUT KORNER

Please note that all food brought into Beth El-Keser Israel's kitchens must be inspected by Rabbi Tilsen or his designee, and that access to the kitchens is only by prior approval of the office and Rabbi. The Rabbi must not be put in the embarrassing position of showing trust toward one person and distrust toward another. On rare occasions foods packages are mislabeled (a dairy item may be incorrectly marked parve, for example) and the Rabbi receives notifications and is aware of such mislabeling. It is imperative therefore that all food deliveries be arranged in advance with the office and Rabbi Tilsen. Your cooperation and understanding is much appreciated.

THIS MONTH B.E.K.I. WELCOMES ITS NEW MEMBERS

Neil Cogan & Mannette Dodge
Nanette Stahl
Now that the rush of the High Holiday period has slowed, there is time to stop for a moment and look back. We were indeed fortunate to get an early start in erecting the sukkah before Rosh Hashanah this year. On the Sunday after Yom Kippur, which is the day the Men's Club usually does this mitzvah, rain threatened. There was barely time to put on the s'khah before it came in a down pour. We are indebted to the Water Company for making available the fragrant pine branches and we thank Dan Prober for bringing them to us. We were especially fortunate also in getting a truckload of foxtail reeds that Marty Faymann arranged to be delivered to us just before the rain.

Ushering by the Men’s Club at the High Holiday services this year was especially efficient and went so well that the very few glitches were hardly noticed. My thanks to all who helped to make the services so meaningful and satisfying.

On Sunday, October 10, the Men's Club put on its first breakfast of the new year for the congregation. We were very gratified to have Rabbi Jon-Jay Tilsen as our guest speaker. His talk, “Close Encounters With God” was very moving and struck many responsive notes among the 50 or so listeners. We sincerely thank him and we must apologize for not having our wireless microphone system working properly. However, the food and service were up to the always high standards of our kitchen crew. We thank them all for these labors and also Joseph Soffer’s contented hens for the eggs.

We have scheduled our next breakfast for November 21. The speaker will be announced in our usual flier. Come to the minyan at 9 am and stay for breakfast. Everyone is invited.

Shalom,

Saul Bell, President

Dear BEKI Members,

I would like to take this opportunity to extend my personal thank you to the entire congregation for total co-operation of everyone during the High Holidays. With everyone's help the holidays went smoothly and we were all able to enjoy the services.

Again, thank you, and please accept my warmest wishes for a happy and healthy New Year.

Sincerely,

Milton Smirnoff
President
SISTERHOOD NEWS

We are planning a very special evening for our paid-up supper this year, so please send in your dues early and then come to the supper which will be held on Monday, November 8th at 6:00 p.m. Dues are $18.00 and can be sent into the office. You will receive the National Women's League magazine, support the Jewish Theology Seminary and of course, our own BEKI.

* * * * * * * * * * * * *

The gift shop will be open the evening of our paid-up supper. Purchases will be discounted 10% for this evening only. We have a large variety of Channukah items, including menorahs, candles, dreidles, books, candy, etc. Do your shopping early and then relax at our supper and entertainment.

SISTERHOOD'S FALL RUMMAGE SALE

We need winter clothing for our fall rummage sale which is Sunday, November 14th and Monday, November 15th. We insist the clothing be clean and wearable! (Any clothing which is not sold will be donated to family shelters and battered women's shelters, as we have done in the past. This year there is a tremendous need for children's outer clothing.) We can also use small appliances in working condition, lamps, dishes, pictures, costume jewelry, toys, small furniture, etc.

We need workers to set up Thursday evening, November 11th at 7:30 pm. Remember these sales are Sisterhood's fund-raisers.

You can start bringing in your rummage now, and please call Mimi or Mikki and say you will help.

FOOD CERTIFICATES

We hope that those congregants who are not participating in our food gift certificates will call us with their order.

It's such a painless way to support your synagogue. It costs you nothing, and the synagogue makes money when you purchase them. We have members who purchase postage stamps with them. Waldbaum's, Pathmark and Stop & Shop sell the stamps and give back the change. You can also pay for your prescription with certificates. We also have certificates for Westville Kosher Meat Market.

You'll feel so good supporting this program. Call us and give us your order. Okay? - Okay!

NOTES FROM BEKI

Saturday Morning Kiddush is now $50. As you know the Kiddush consists of: herring, gefilte fish, horseradish, crackers, wine, cake, and juice. If you would like to sponsor a Kiddush in honor of or in memory of someone, please contact the synagogue office (389-2108). Sponsoring a Kiddush is a Mitzvah! If you wish to bring in additional foods, please remember that they must be in the synagogue by 10:00 Friday morning.

Inscribe a Prayer book - What a wonderful way to honor someone on their birthday or to say thank you for something that they did. What about remembering them on their Yahrzeit by putting their name in a prayer book. The cost for a prayer book inscription is $18.00. Please send your check and the brief inscription to the synagogue office.

Keep us Informed - The members of BEKI Synagogue care about you. We want to be able to share in your mitzvot, assist you when you are ill, and comfort you when you have lost a loved one. The problem is that very often we don't hear about the event until much after it has occurred. Please take a few minutes to have someone phone the synagogue to inform us as to what is happening. We want to be there for you!
