

Together New Haven: Economic Development in New Haven

A BEKI Zoom schmooze with Carlos Eyzaguirre

Economic Development Officer for the City of New Haven

Wednesday May 26 at 8PM @ tinyurl.com/BEKIschmooze

Carlos Eyzaguirre is an Economic Development Officer for the City of New Haven where he has served as project manager on several major City initiatives including the COVID-related Together New Haven Economic Resiliency roundtable, the Long Wharf Responsible Growth Plan and the Route 34 West multi-phase mixed-use development. He previously served as Business Development Director for the Economic Development Corporation of New Haven. A graduate of New Haven Public Schools, he came to BEKI as a child with his mother Susan Voigt; he attended the University of California Santa Cruz and Hunter College (CUNY). He is currently a BEKI member, along with his wife, Jane Coffee and their 2 children.

