

To help BEKI groups find fair trade chocolate products

updated Nov22.2022

All chocolate served at Congregation Beth El – Keser Israel must carry certification that it has been screened against child slavery, as decided by the Board on December 13, 2021. “This resolution reflects our continued commitment to Tikun Olam and ethically sourced products,” President Yaron Lew explained. “We are progressing towards Ethical Kashrut, which goes beyond the laws of Kashrut and affirms our tremendous concern for our impact on our planet and humanity.”

Look for these anti-child slavery certifications: Fair Trade, Rainforest Alliance, or UTZ:

Here are some suggestions, but always check the label since things can change!

When we shop for BEKI, we need to remember 3 things: (1) Kosher (2) Fair trade (3) No nuts.
